LIE RETURNS WITH PEACE PLAN

Indicate Further Espionage Suspects To Be Arrested

More Arrests Imminent In Espionage

Arrest Of Gold May Unveil New Conspiracy Ring

By JAMES LEE
(I. N. S. Staff Correspondent)

WASHINGTON, May 25.—The arrest of confessed spy Harry Gold may unveil a Soviet espionage conspiracy in the United States linked with the Canadian atomic spy ring.

Some Washington sources believe the two rings were, in fact, branches of the same operation.

New Arrests Imminent

This development came as:

1. New espionage arrests were reported imminent as a result of the continued "singing" to FBI agents in London by convicted atomic spy Dr. Klaus Fuchs.

2. The congressional atomic "watch dog" committee scheduled a closed door meeting on Atomic Energy Commission security measures. The arrest of Gold in Philadelphia was certain to be a subject of discussion.

3. It was disclosed that the FBI has had Gold under surveillance since shortly after Fuchs' arrest last January.

The FBI said that Gold was one of more than 1,200 suspected confederates of Fuchs "screened" in the search for men who collaborated with the Briton. It was also believed that a third confederate, a Russian agent described as "John Doe", has made his escape from the United States.

Fuchs May Talk

Fuchs, described as "most cooperative and willing to tell all", is serving a 14-year term for giving Gold atomic secrets that Fuchs picked up while working at Los Alamos, N. M.

Gold, an inconspicuous 39-year-old biochemist, confessed that he turned the material over to a "John Doe" in meetings which took place in the vicinity of Jackson Heights, New York.

Government information links Gold and Fuchs with Soviet spy master Jacob Golos and that, in fact, it was Golos who recruited Gold in 1940.

Golos, who died in 1943, was, in turn, linked with the Canadian spy apparatus.

Additionally, it was pointed out that Gold, acting under Soviet orders, ceased functioning as an atomic spy at about the same time the Canadian ring was uncovered in 1945.

Draft Extension Measure Given House Approval

By RAYMOND WILCOVE
(I. N. S. Staff Correspondent)

WASHINGTON, May 25.—Administration leaders are expected today to put the house-approved draft extension bill on the senate "must" calendar for swift action.

Senate leaders acted promptly as the house took only one day to debate and approve a "stand-by" two-year extension of the selective service law, which is now slated to expire June 24.

Public hearings will begin June 1 before the senate armed services committee. Supporters of the legislation will be heard first, followed June 5 by opponents. Some committee members expressed the hope the bill could be reported out by June 9.

Considered Essential

President Truman, top military chieftains and congressional leaders consider continuation of selective service essential in the prosecution of the cold war with Russia. They feel that to do otherwise would weaken our defenses and strike a blow at the morale of the western powers.

The house bill is a compromise. The president asked for a three-year extension of the existing law unchanged, with the power to induct men. The house voted 216 to

Hunt Slayer In Old Mine

CLINTON, Pa., May 25.—(INS)—State police and Allegheny county detectives, armed with submachine guns and sawed off shotguns, continued today to attempt to flush a suspected demented killed from an abandoned mine shaft near Clinton.

The suspect, Dewey McLaughlin, 45, shot and killed his 32-year-old sister-in-law, Mrs. Alfonse McLaughlin yesterday as she washed clothes in the kitchen of her Clinton home, police said.

Neighbors told officers they saw Dewey flee the house shortly after they heard shots. They said he was carrying a shot gun.

"He's crazy," said Alfonse McLaughlin, husband of the slain woman. "He's been awful sick lately. But I never thought he'd do this."

The hunted man is one of 10 brothers. The shooting took place while the husband of the slain woman was at work at a nearby coal mine.

"We've got to remember that Russia has reached warm waters in all parts of the world and for the first time in its history is in a position to become a major sea power.

"I think they intend to go ahead with it. Our first job is to meet the Russian submarine threat, but in our long-range considerations we cannot discount the Russian surface navy."

There's a crick in the back and an ache in the arms, I feel like I've been in a fight, and my muscles are taut in the back of my legs. I planted some garden last night. Some lettuce and endive and radishes too, some kale and some beets and beans, and now I can sit back and wait for a while and we'll have us a mess of some greens. The corn isn't in, nor tomatoes as yet, but the cabbage is well on the way, so it won't be too long till the garden is set, it's done, by today.

mitted an immoral act against a Youngstown girl whom he picked up in his auto Saturday night. When he picked up the girl, a Youngstown alert taxicab operator took the license of the Pennsylvania car. He turned the number over to police and, later the young woman told her story to Youngstown police. Youngstown police asked New Castle police to investigate the affair.

Upon learning of the two attacks Tuesday night, plus the Ohio act, Mayor John F. Haven assumed personal charge of the case.

He conferred with Chief of Police Robert D. Hanna and Police Captain Willis McMullen. He ordered that every member of the police force join in the search. Through the license number provided by Youngstown police, the identity of the motorist was learned.

Commencing at 11:30 a.m. Wednesday, a close tab was kept on the man's home, and search was made for his expensive automobile. Mayor Haven accompanied detectives in the search.

At 11:30 a.m., Police Captain McMullen telephoned the man's house and asked:

"Is Charlie there?"

A man answered, and replied "there is no Charlie here."

The answer was all McMullen needed to know the suspect was at home. He dispatched Detectives Moore and Boyle to apprehend the man.

The suspect's auto was found somewhat distant from his home.

At 4:30 p.m. the victims of Tuesday night's attacks, one girl from the East Side and the other from the North Hill, went to detective headquarters. Detectives report that they identified the suspect as their assailant.

However, the man denied the accusation, stating he was asleep with his wife, at home, at 10:30 p.m. Tuesday.

Questioned about the Youngstown act, the suspect readily confessed, according to city detectives. Youngstown authorities are due here today to question him, not only concerning this act, but also attacks on several other Youngstown women.

The suspect was confronted this morning by a third girl who was attacked recently. She told detectives she was not sure she could identify him as her assailant.

The suspect has retained counsel.

ALLIED FORCES PREPARING FOR BERLIN DEMONSTRATON

overwhelmingly anti-Communist the Communist still have considerable strength in several districts.

The east Berlin leaders have emphasized that they are planning only a "peaceful demonstration" by an estimated 500,000 Communist youth at Whitsuntide.

All indications so far seem to point to the sincerity of their promises. But western officials believe it is possible the Communists in the western sectors may be employed for "strong arm" purposes.

Two Primary Aims

Such action would have two primary aims. The first would be to create the appearance of a spontaneous demonstration by west Berliners against the western powers. The second would be to touch off disorders which would provide a pretext for the Soviets to hurl East German Communist troops into the western areas.

It is feared the Communists may attempt to fulfill the first aim because of a Russian desire to spread the impression that the west is remaining in the city against the will of Berliners.

West police are particularly concerned over the vulnerability of the power, light, water and transit systems to Communist saboteurs. It is know that such sabotage crews have been organized.

Special squads of anti-Communist union members already have been assigned to take over protection of utilities installations.

U.N. SECRETARY RETURNS FROM STALIN VISIT

his meeting with President Truman.

Lie looked rested and cheerful despite the long trip and gave the impression that important developments will come eventually from the five-week trip to three European capitals and Washington.

To Confer With Truman

Arrangements have been made for him to proceed to Washington again next week for a lengthy conference with Mr. Truman and Secretary of State Acheson. The latter will first make his report to congress on the recent big three meeting and North Atlantic pact conferences held in London. This is scheduled for Wednesday.

Lie's return to U. N. headquarters coincides with a somewhat more encouraging atmosphere in support of the world organization as a whole, despite the deepening split of the cold war.

Although Russo-American relations are strained anew at this moment by the threat of a German communist invasion of west Berlin next Sunday and the arrest of Philadelphian Harry Gold as a Soviet spy, the U. N. chief will emphasize to President Truman the urgent need for renewed consultation between Russia and the western powers.

'Rogues Gallery' Of Atomic Spy Suspects Shown To Dr. Fuchs

LONDON, May 25—(INS)—A "rogues' gallery" of atomic spy suspect photographs was reported shown today to Dr. Klaus Fuchs in the hope he may be able to identify additional "contacts" in the United States to whom he gave secrets for Soviet Russia.

Fuchs, who is serving a 14-year jail term for espionage, already has identified Philadelphian Harry Gold as a receiver of secret atomic information.

The pictures were flown to London under heavy guard along with a match of sealed documents prepared in New York by the FBI.

REPORT 20 POLIO CASES

HARRISBURG, May 25.—(INS)—The state health department reported today that 30 poliomyelitis cases have been reported in Pennsylvania since January 1, one more than listed during the comparable period last year.

Five cases have been listed in Allegheny county, three in Northampton and two in Center county. Counties reporting one case apiece are Bedford, Berks, Bradford, Cambria, Clearfield, Elk, Lackawanna, Luzerne, Susquehanna and York.

LONGSHOREMEN PUSH SHIP

NEW YORK, May 25.—(INS)—One hundred and fifty longshoremen, using only the power of their backs and arms, pushed a 10,000-ton steamship far enough from a Brooklyn pier yesterday to permit the rescue of a four-year-old girl who had fallen between the ship and the pilings.

The Baltimore and Ohio railroad put out the first railroad timetable in 1830.

TRAFFIC SUGGESTIONS
933 Adams Street
New Castle, Pa.

Editor
New Castle News
New Castle, Pa.
Dear Sir:

As a citizen and a taxpayer of this city, I would like to express my opinion of the traffic conditions of this city.

I have retired from the New York City Police Department after twenty-two years of service and believe that my experience might be of help in solving traffic conditions.

First, eliminate commercial vehicles such as trailers and large trucks from the main business thorofare. These should be bypassed down Jefferson street, into Grove street, up Taylor, and to Butler avenue. The same route should be followed by commercial vehicles who come the opposite direction thus easing the traffic jams which often occur during the day and evening in the main business thorofare.

Second, Water street, in my opinion, should be a one way street, eastbound from Mill street to Washington street. Often, vehicles making left or right turns from Washington street into Water street cause traffic congestions on Washington street. "One Way" arrows should be placed where motor vehicle operators can readily see them; they should not be attached to buildings. This law should be strictly enforced.

Third, bus stops of Mill street should be moved. Coming down from Highland, the bus stop should be at the alley. Coming up Mill street, the bus stop should be at the other alley. This would make it possible for cars to park in front of the busses when they stop for a red light, thus eliminating another traffic jam since busses do not always move with the green light. It would also help the pedestrian traffic since often large numbers of people waiting for the bus obstruct the sidewalk.

Fourth, allow a right turn at Washington and Jefferson on the red light. You will notice that often westbound vehicles are parked all the way up to the Regent theatre. This would be eliminated by allowing a right turn. Of course, precaution should be used for the safety of pedestrians.

Traffic conditions should be surveyed periodically by police officials, especially between the hours of 4:00 p.m. to 7:00 p.m. Traffic men should be placed in the center of the street, not on the sidewalk. That would give him the opportunity to direct motor traffic and pedestrian traffic also. I notice, too, that traffic lights don't seem to be timed so that the motorist has a straight way. He makes the red light at Mill street, the green light at East street, and the red light again at Croton. This causes a traffic bottleneck. Time the lights so that the motorist can go all the way up the main thorofare without stopping so often. The present system is the "chain system" and is unsatisfactory in my opinion.

During the summer months when there are the white lines indicating the cross walks, I notice that motorists do not stop behind the white lines, giving the pedestrians the right-of-way to the cross walks. Summons should be served for obstructing cross-walks.

Another thing that would help would be to make Croton avenue from Mill to Washington, a one-way street, eastbound. Croton avenue, from Washington street up could be a two-way street. This would prevent left and right turns into Croton avenue which often cause traffic congestion.

This is the way I observe the traffic conditions in town.

Sincerely yours,
Anthony T. Chiurazzi

MILD WINTER—MORE BUGS

The mild winter of 1950 was apparently not a blessing to the farmers. By saving the lives of insect pests it has added to the plagues which have been increasing steadily since 1945. The U. S. Department of Agriculture gloomily predicts that the damage this year may be double the billion-dollar damage of last year. A loss of $2,000,000,000 would be approximately six per cent of the total farm income.

The government is faced with surpluses it doesn't know what to do with—but nobody wants the bugs to do the cutting down on what goes to market. The department has seen the bugs more than keep pace with the new insecticides. It can only urge more use of them than ever before, under proper guidance.

What the chief insect scourges? Grasshoppers in the West did damage totaling $27,000,000 last year despite the use of 13,500,000 tons of poison. The poison cost more than the damage, but it would have been far greater had no poison been used.

The corn borer now hits corn to the extent of $350,000,000, or nearly 10 times the damage in 1945. Old Mr. Boll Weevil, the villain of southern folk ballads, is three times as destructive as he was five years ago. The 1949 damage was $470,000,000. And so it goes to a lesser extent with the fruit and vegetable pests—the coddling moth, oriental fruit moth, potato bugs, bean beetles, and caterpillars in all sizes, shapes and colors.

The experts think maybe the country is in a 10-year cycle of high living for the insect world. In times of surpluses it can stand these depredations a lot better than it could in times of scarcity from drought or other causes. But laws-a-mercy, the outlook is sorry enough right now, for everybody but the poison makers.

A STRAW IN THE WIND

Figures recently released by the Department of Commerce disclose the fact that in 1949 for the first time in a great many years our imports exceeded our exports, in other words we bought more abroad than we sold abroad.

In view of the many years of the excess of exports over imports—due to the war and dislocations incident to war—this is not for the moment an alarming situation, especially if it can be shown that the imports consisted chiefly of raw materials and finished goods which do not injure American industry, because of unfair competition due to low-paid or slave labor.

But if our imports get to the point where they are throwing American workers out of jobs and interfering with national production, on the farm and in the city, then that is something else again. It is a fact that some industries are already beginning to complain.

The Administration regards the excess of imports over exports as something desirable, but this is not reassuring, because many Administration experts also consider our great national debt and our deficit financing to be desirable.

These 1949 reports by the Department of Commerce are just a little straw showing in which direction the wind is blowing. Watch the weather vane and see what happens.

A RURAL PSYCHOLOGIST

An "agricultural short course for rural ministers" is to be held on May 29 at the University of Deelaware. The day's session is designed to bring "the latest information concerning farmeers' problems and means of solving them . . . The health and stability of our national life are largely dependent upon an economically sound and wholesome agricultural foundation."

The main speaker will be an "extension rural psychologist" of the U. S. Department of Agriculture. He will discuss "Understanding Rural People."

Well! Well! The times do move. Who expected to see the day when a country preacher would be a candidate to sit at the feet of somebody with a title like that. It's ordinarily the job of rural psychologists to interpret farmers to other people, or vice versa.

The best psychologist to explain rural life to a young city-raised minister would be a retired preacher who has spent an active life catering to the spiritual needs of country people. That means one who was born on a small farm. From earliest youth he learned the meaning of the Golden Rule as it is interpreted by families who, living remotely, depend upon each other's neighborliness in work, play, sickness, or any other distress.

He is a man who has followed a plow. Most likely he can, or could, milk. In his kindly, sociable understanding way he has straightened out many a family problem with practical psychology he learned himself.

What if he isn't current with all the newest devices and schemes for improving rural life? Does he need to be? But is he qualified to help a young minister get close to a rural flock? He certainly is.

What people seem to fear most is that in the future these may be referred to as the good old days.

In a district special election in Great Britain the other day the Liberals retained control by 37 votes. In the recent general election they won the district by 2,132 votes. This means—if it means anything at all—that the trend is still against the Socialists. But they keep possession of the British lion even if it does seem to be roaring a little louder all the time.

German Colonial Return To Africa?

Possibility of a German colonial return to Africa, an almost undreamed-of event during the last 30 years, moved closed to the realm of reality today through a bold new French proposal.

Andre Francois-Poncet, a veteran in diplomacy and international relations who is now French high commissioner for Germany, is the author.

Plan Suggested

He has suggested that the plan broached by French Foreign Minister Robert Schuman callin, for fusion of Franco-German coal and iron resources be extended to embrace all of Europe.

Francois-Poncet also suggests that economic competition be abolished in Europe by simultaneous pooling of steel, lumber, chemicals and electricity, with definite moves to encourage a new migration to Africa as the ultimate objective of a European continent producing at full capacity on a non-competitive basis.

The exodus to Africa may meet with a good deal of initial opposition.

Great Britain is giving approval only very slowly to the Schuman proposal itself.

At the present time, the British have embarked upon vast new develepoments of their own in Africa, seeing in the vast dark continent an area not menaced by communism, with unplumbed potentials both for production and absorption of goods.

Little Achieved

The immense loss off life in the second world war did not achieve anything for overcrowding in Europe because the damage to homes and apartment buildings was so great.

At the same time, destruction of plants and factories by bombardment, confiscation and dismantling has contributed to unemployment and many observers are convinced that the only real answer lies in emigration overseas.

Expansion in Africa has been a cardinal principle of every German government since time immemorial.

Kaiser Wilhelm II had grandiose schemes. The Berlin to Baghdad railway was one of them and there were concrete achievements in Togoland, the Cameroons and Elseqhere in Africa until the military madness of all Highest carried Germany into the first world war and stripped her of these colonies.

Had Colonial Aspirations

Adolf Hitler was known to have colonial aspirations as well, although he tried to hide them until such a time as he might become full master of Europe and could have anything he wanted.

It was not without significance that during the war, the elite of Hitler's army was encompassed in Field Marshal Erwin Rommel's Afrika Korps.

Uniforms and equipment were of the best, food was in abundance and shrewd propaganda was carried out among the troops to convince them that victory would open for them vast, untouched areas for plunder and exploitation.

The western democracies are committed to the task of helping Germany get on her feet. If she is to achieve real equality with other nations of western Europe, her re-entry into Africa at some future time would appear to be entirely logical.

French Support

France seems to support this German expansion at the present.

She has enormous undeveloped territories of her own in north and western Africa and the Sahara and an influx of German manpower might prove to her advantage at the present time.

Great Britain's position, on the other hand, is not so favorable.

The falling away of great parts of the empire and the existing threat to others such as the Malayan peninsula has compelled an ever-increasing attention to Africa.

Here, as elsewhere, the British are definitely fearful of full scale German competition. The British might suddenly see some of their potentially-valuable enterprises menaced by the Germans, with their unquestioned initiative, speed and ingenuity in opening up new fields of endeavor.

Francois-Poncet, who was for a long time ambassador to nazi Germany before the war, knows what the Germans are capable of doing.

He must feel that opening the way for new German emigration to Africa will benefit not only Germany but all of continental Europe. If the British do not like the idea, it is unfortunate for them.

The Parent Problem

By Garry C. Myers, Ph. D.

BEHAVIOR PROBLEM OF YOUNG BOY

A child, in order to be happy and ready to cooperate with his parents, must feel not only that he is loved and wanted but loved and wanted as much as any other child in the family. It is not at all unusual for a youngster two, three or four to be strongly negative toward his parents. But when a child as old as ten or twelve is so, there must be pretty strong emotional factors of some sort at the root of the matter.

"Dear Dr. Myers:

"I have a boy, ten, in the fifth grade at school. He is popular with his playmates and interested in sports. For the past two years he has gradually developed a very antagonistic attitude toward his father and me, in fact any adult he is in contact with. His manners have become repulsive and he defies anyone to correct him. Everything goes along smoothly until it is necessary to correct him, then he immediately has a chip on his shoulder and delights in doing things he knows will upset us. He has a brother, two, whom he loves and toward whom he shows no resentment."

Ugly Feelings

I replied about as follows. If you and Dad put yourselves in the place of this older child you probably would feel and act about as he does. Since the baby is so small the older boy does not turn his ugly feelings upon him but upon his parents, thus blinding you parents to the lad's painful jealousies. (Please read carefully my enclosed bulletin, "Jealousy," to be had by anybody else in a stamped envelope sent me at 235 East 45th street, New York, N. Y.) This lad feels that he himself is considered very unimportant in comparison with the baby, not only by his parents but by other adults also.

You and Dad and your adult friends need to find more ways to make this older boy feel worthwhile. Help him attract playmates to the home and enjoy more achievements and self-regard.

Sweet Revenge

This older lad has discovered that he can by his ugly ways annoy you parents very much and get sweet revenge. You say he delights in upsetting his parents. Why be upset? Make clear to him the few things he must or must not do (that you can check personally). Be decisive. Provide effective penalties other than with your tongue and show of anger. Perhaps the safest and most potent penalty for him is to have him sit in a chair without amusement for exactly 40 minutes. Center on the few serious matters and ignore those less important. Wipe out the past. Earlier actions of his will be sticking in your memory. But strive to keep your attention away from them and on the positive good in this lad.

Wonderful if you could induce this older lad to read to the baby and do things to amuse him. No better way to cultivate in him happier feelings. Build up in the baby an increasing admiration for his big brother. Also see that the baby does not appropriate or mess up his brother's things. Wonderful, too, for Dad to have lunch downtown occasionally with his son and to go with him to a game or a movie thereafter. (My bulletin, "Fathers Are Parents, Too," may be had in a stamped envelope sent me at 235 East 45th street, New York, N. Y.) Jokes, laughter and all sorts of fun at meals, especially when the boy tells some jokes, should make the whole family feel happier together.

Bible Thought

These things have I written unto you that believe on the name of the Son of God; that ye may know that ye have eternal life, and that ye may believe on the name of the Son of God. And this is the confidence that we have in him, that if we ask any thing according to his will, he heareth us; And if we know that he hear us, whatsoever we ask, we know that we have the petitions that we desired of him —John 5: 13, 14, 15.

Just Folks

UNTIDY ROOM

The home was upset, there were
toys on the floor;
Hats and coats on the chairs,
And the mother to answer a ring
at the door
Came running down stairs.

Now some women worry lest strangers should see
Such sad disarray
And think them housekeepers
untidy. Not she.
Let them think what they may.

"Come in!" she exclaimed as she opened the door.
"Come in! Take a chair.
If we didn't have playthings all over the floor,
The home would seem bare.

"With the children in bed I shall straighten a bit.
But still through the day
Let them play with their toys,
and I have to admit
We like it that way."

Folks Of Fame

You folk who remember the motion picture's silent days should recall Enid Bennett who starred in many films. She was born in York, western Australia. She had a stage career in America and abroad in support of Fred Niblo and Otis Skinner. Her screen career began as a starring dramatic ingenue in such pictures as "Fuss and Feathers," "The Vamp," "Biggest Show on Earth," "Silk Hosiery," etc. Later she starred in "Robin Hood," "Red lily" and "Sea Hawk." She retired some years ago.

'LOOK OUT FOR THE CARS'

Washington Calling

(By Marquis Childs)

Present Is Time Of Danger

WASHINGTON, May 25.—"If the past undertakes to sit in judgment on the present, then the future will be lost."

These words were spoken by Winston Churchill in June of 1940. It was England's gravest hour. The very existence of the British people was threatened.

Churchill, the supreme realist, was addressing those who wanted to assess the blame for the terrible mistakes of the recent past. The appeasers, the men of Munich, had failed utterly to understand the meaning of the times. But what Britain could not afford at that desperate moment, as Churchill knew so well, was the luxury of recrimination and punishment for past sins.

Anyone who looks candidly at the record of recent months in this country must see how large a part of our energies have gone into the quarrel between past and present. In its most virulent and vicious form, this is McCarthyism.

Time of Danger

At the same time, one who examines candidly the trend of events can hardly fail to see that the present is a time of danger at least as great as June of 1940. The timetable is not as advanced. But it is the potentiality of disaster and destruction that weighs so heavily at this hour.

Yet even as we realize this, we must also know that we are doing far too little to avert it. We are doing too little to preserve the peace if it can be preserved. And certainly we are doing too little to win a war if finally it does come.

Returning from the foreign ministers' conference, Secretary of State Dean Acheson can have a sence of accomplishment. Decisions were taken at that conference that can mean much for the future security of the West. But they will be meaningful only if there is much, much greater action here, first, to convince the peoples of the world that we want peace and, second, that we intend to win the war should the worst come to the worst.

Conference Obscured

In the press here at home the observance of Armed Forces Day, with its display of military strength and speeches by defense department officials, seemed to obscure the significance of the conference in London.

Much of what was said was apparently on the assumption that a shooting war is bound to follow the cold war.

The differences in viewpoint between the Defense and State departments have been unhappy obstacles to a realistic approach to the issue of peace or war. One of Acheson's advisers, talking privately, put it this way:

"Over in the Defense department they are making all their moves on the basis of what will be useful in the coming war. Here in the State department, we are still working in the belief that we can keep the peace."

This division, and the disputes it engenders, hampers the effort to shape a coherent and rational policy. But if the Defense department is actually making ready for an inevitable war, then here, too, the past seems to get in the way. The overconfident prophecies of Secretary of Defense Louis Johnson hardly prepare us for the awful potentialities of a third world conflict.

Only Cautious Hints

There is the impression that we are being given only cautious and careful hints of what the future contains and what we must do to meet it. W. Stuart Symington, head of the National Security Resources Board, has come closer than any responsible official. In several recent speeches he has said that the nation in another war may not have years or months in which to mobilize, but hours.

If that is true, and there is good reason to believe it is, then we are living in a fools' paradise that has a terminal date attached to it. Always in the past we have gone blandly and sometimes blindly on until events caught up with us. Then, under the shock of events, we rallied our forces. As Symington has said, we are not likely again to be allowed that ralling period.

The American people are being told something less than the facts of present day life, and they sense it. Documents are classified secret that should be on the front pages of every newspaper. It was not mere hysteria that caused the residents of South Amboy to run into the streets in the belief that an atomic explosion had occurred. That could be an infinitely small rehearsal for things to come.

For reasons political and otherwise, a kind of conspiracy of wishful optimism prevails in Washington. That cheerful conspiracy, holding to the comfortable precedents of the past, may well be the greatest peril to the existence of this republic.

Mr. Trygve Lie, returning from a series of conferences with world leaders, can report that he found them all in splendid health and miserable spirits.

There have been rumors that Premier Stalin had passed on but Mr. Lie assures us that Stalin is not only alive but kicking . . about many things.

There was no doubt about our own support of the United Nations at any time . . . Even at three-power rump caucuses in London we are strongly for one world without power blocs such as three-power groups.

In London, Mr. Lie visited Prime Minister Attlee between confidence votes and in Paris he talked with Premier Bidault who has set a record of several months in office.

He got status quo assurances all around and they are just as strong, as the governments that made them . . . What more could a man ask?

CHANGED IDENTITIES

You never can tell, and it's just as well,
If your children will be a little wild,
Or rays of delight from dawn till midnight—
The neighbors regret, or a teacher's pet.

For he may be bad—that wee little lad,
And wipe up the floor with one you adore,
And worry his pets, and makes lots of debts . . . .
Not a bit like Sammy, "That darling tyke"!

Now that angel child—disposition so mild—
Was a joy to all; a nice little boy.
With his future secure, neighbors were sure
He was a lad who just could not go bad.

But you can be sure no virtues endure
The far-seeing eyes and the neighborly cries
Of, "That Tommy lad! O dear! He's so bad!—
I just know to a man he'll never grow".

But he grew up—and the angel did too,
In the mud and slime of gossips pastime,
And now they all cry, "I just can't see why
Those two today changed identities that way?"

They Say

WINDSOR LOCKS, Conn.—Gen Dwight D. Eisenhower—"I cannot escape the feeling that we do not fully appreciate the privilege that Americans have in working together to do the things they wish to do."

WASHINGTON—Sumner Pike acting chairman of the Atomic Energy commission — "I would think that it would be a real risk that a nation attacked by a great quantity of atomic weapons might not continue to exist in its present form as we know it."

NEW YORK — Ex-Communist Editor Louis Budenz—"The master key to Soviet conquest of the U.S. might well be our own complacency."

PHILADELPHIA—Dr. Pascal F Lucchesi, superintendent of the hospital where accused atomic spy Harry Gold was employed—"I was terribly shocked. I had no idea that anything like this was in the making."

Despite the parallel, any modern Missouri haberdashery is better operated than this give-anybody-every-thing-we've-got government.—Carrollton, O., Journal.

Somebody Is Wrong

(By HOLMES ALEXANDER)

WASHINGTON, D. C., May 25.—Everett M. Kassalow is a bright young economist, executive secretary of the CID committee on full employment but we have ideas that don't exactly coincide. One of us is wrong, or maybe both. It is industry, he says, not Labor, which forces the Government to interfer with private enterprise. It is corporate wealth, not the national debt, which is driving the U. S. down Senator Byrd's famous road to socialism. And for all we know, it is war, not peace, which will get the country over the next depression hump.

Could be. When mere mortals try to assume omniscience on the big subject of national economy, it's like the fable about the blind men and the elephant. The savant who fumbles at the elephant's trunk won't have the same opinion as the soothsayer who takes hold of the tail, and so forth. Mr. Kassalow's view from the fifth floor of the CIO building is just as clear—or as cloudy—as mine from the 13th story of the National Press Building. I doubt if he claims to be omniscient. I know I don't.

Points To Mounting Unemployment

Anyhow, Mr. Kassalow points to the mounting unemployment—a million more jobless people every postwar year. There's worse to come, he says, because new machinery and processes are rapidly displacing workers. His boss, CIO President Phillip Murray, is in semi-private conferences with the U. S. Steel Corp., over technological developments which haven't yet been made public. In steel, in rubber, in textiles the future holds more machines and fewer men to work them.

"Sure, I know," says Mr. Kassalow. "In 15 years the new machines will create new jobs. But that's not much comfort to the men who are being laid off."

So when private enterprise can't provide full employment, the government must. Industry's failure to keep on expanding is the reason for Fair Deal plans to build government steel mills, break up "monopolies," regulate production and perhaps reduce the 40-hour work week. If it weren't for the Labor Movement, we'd have had a postwar depression before this. High wages, pensions and collective contracts have kept purchasing power on the go, he says.

Reason For Spending

The national debt—more than a quarter of a trillion dollars—isn't such a bad thing, says Mr. Kassalow. We've had deficit spending for a long while, and we haven't gone broke, not yet. The reason the government spends, he says, is because the corporation won't. Postwar profits are stratospheric, and what are the capitalists doing with their money? They're soaking it away, he says, in banks and bonds. But isn't it true, Mr. Kassalow, that corporations invested over $16 billion last year in plants and equipment? Yes, but the same Securities and Exchange Commission report shows that the corporations held over $40 billion in cash and securities, says Mr. Kassalow.

It's his view that industry should be made to spend these savings. If we had a spending economy, we needn't have a splurging government. Private enterprise should build more housing, manufacture a whole new fleet of railroad rolling stock, go into air-conditioning on a national scale. Didn't he think that Mr. Truman's constant threatening of "selfish-interests" had something to do with business caution? No, that was just an excuse, said Mr. Kassalow.

Need War Every 25 Years

It could be, he observed, that we needed a war every 25 years to absorb our economic energies. Not that he was in favor of war, and he hoped I wouldn't misquote him. Still, it was government spending—some of it war-spending—whicr broke the last depression.

Well, if you don't like war, or government regulation, or a national debt that foreshadows inflation and socialism—what then? If you believe that we have the richest, freest, strongest nation on earth because of—not in spite of—free enterprise, how do you answer Mr. Kassalow; If you are convinced that the American competitive system is the best way of life yet discovered, how do you explain away the human hardships of unemployment.

You just, I suppose, accept the fact that we live in an imperfect world on this side of the grave. After all, this is the United States and not Utopia. The poor we have always with us, and the best we can offer it opportunity with certain forms of insurance against actual suffering. The house has some creaks in it, that's certain. But you don't tear down the house just to get rid of the creaks. Or do you?

Looking At Life

By ERICH BRANDEIS

Sometimes feel ashamed of myself when I sit at my typewriter and write about breakfast, flowers, mosquitoes, crooners, while the world is thundering and lightning is all around me.

"How terribly unimportant these things are," I say to myself. "I must write about important things hereafter."

But then I look at my mail and at letters such as this one which says, in part, "You have eased the vicissitudes of life and lightened its burdens for me with your homely writings. God bless you for it."

So what is a fellow going to do?

And, after all, what is important?

Isn't breakfast important?

I bet you Harry Truman puts a gosh darn good breakfast under his belt before embarking on his daily statesmanship. Or do you think for a moment that he could keep up those strenuous trips and that big smile for the photographers without breakfast?

Even Stalin would be still ornrier and meaner without a good breakfast of caviar and borscht.

So breakfast is important. You try to go without it some time and see.

I also mentioned flowers in the opening sentence.

Are flowers important? Imagine a world without flowers. Imagine a bride without her bouquet, a store-opening without its "Good Luck" floral horseshoe., Grover Whalen, New York's official greeter, without his buttonhole carnation.

Mosquitoes came next in my introductory paragraph. Gosh, now I am stuck. What is important about mosquitoes?

Yet, they are important. Mosquitoes have wiped out whole populations. They have caused pestilence and plagues. Millions of dollars have been spent in research to wipe them out.

My encyclopedia gives seven full pages to the mosquito—not one word to me.

Crooners were the last "trifle" I mentioned. Yet, even crooners are important.

What would Radio be without them? Or Television? Where would our bobby soxers get their vicarious thrills?

I don't maintain that crooners are at important as mosquitoes, but they can certainly not be called unimportant.

So now I wonder where does importance end and piffle begin?

There is a saying, "For want of a nail the shoe was lost; for want of a shoe the horse was lost; for want of a horse the rider was lost."

So it is with "importance".

The above-mentioned Truman and Stalin might have a poor breakfast some Tuesday morning; there may be no flowers on the Syphilis is a disease which causes a lot of trouble. A person may have it for a long time and not know it.

SYPHILLIS

We seem to have a queer idea that it is sort of disgraceful to have a disease of the mind.

We sometimes include syphilis in the same category. Perhaps it is no more disgraceful than cancer or asthma or any other disease.

Sometimes a person learns that he has syphilis but does nothing about it. He feels fine. He has no pain or other trouble; so why worry?

Anyone who has syphilis needs medical advice.

Treatment which formerly took several years may now be accomplished is as many weeks.

The treatment of syphilis is a personal proposition. The individual must be considered as well as the disease.

Getting More Lovable And Winsome?

NEW YORK, May 25.—(INS)—I can't figure out whether we Americans and our country are getting more lovable and winsome as time goes by or whether Europeans are becoming more tolerant.

The point is that recently, I have met up with a mixed melange of visiting European firemen who think we Americans are chock-full of charm and refinement of the highest order and that the U.S.A. is Utopia in technicolor.

This is heady stuff for an American citizen, accustomed to the slings and arrows of outraged Europeans, beginning with the invasion of this innocent country by Mrs. Trollope and the subsequent onslaught of a Mr. Charles Dickens.

We have been powerfully chastised in the intervening years by our friends from across the sea and always, naturally, for our own good.

Trend Is Spotted

But as of now, I think I spot a trend: either our fascination is showing or Europeans are weakening.

In recent weeks I have met an Italian contessa who is writing and ode to Brooklyn and a French financier who is trying to goad some American historian into writing a book to prove that Uncle Sam won two world wars.

But the feather in the cap, the cherry on the sundae and the frosting on the cake have just been applied by a visiting English couple who are frightfully indignant at the widespread libel that American voices are loud, harsh and nasal.

We Americans have the most soft, delightfully modulated and low-pitched voices these two Britons have ever heard. They are just completing a three month coast-to-coast tour of the U.S.A. in which they have constantly been soothed by the dulcet tones of my fellow countrymen, whether in Atlanta, Jo'ja, or Lincoln, Nebr.

They are contemplating the acquisition of wire recording to prove to the boys at the Drones club, London, and English way points that the British voice is several decibels more strident, nasal and harsh than the musical and liquid inflections in which we couth Americans chat.

Indorsement Of Voice

This indorsement of the American voice on the part of a Britisher, who is distinctly old school tie, and his wife, who is right out of the top drawer, is the most sensational man-bites-dog story in my experience in the newspaper business.

It is always interesting to see one's own country from the fresh view point of a visiting fireman. This Britisher, one his country's top industrialists and a leading member of the conservative party believes the United States is in more danger from statism than is Great Britain.

Our visitor, who has been coming to America frequently throughout his adult life, is certain that labor has only two or three more years—at most—to go in England. Within that period, he expects the conservatives to return to power with a subsequent end to planned economy and statism.

Must Export Or Die

He points out that statism canot flourish—or rather that it never has succeeded—in a nation that must export or die, which is great Britain's fate. He reminds Americans that no planned economy can determine what foreign markets will want six months, much less 18 months, ahead.

Thus, he argues, statism becomes impossible in an economy geared to foreign markets, as England's must be of necessity.

Statism can only flourish in a nation which consumes most of what it produces, as does the United States, he continues, and in which the economy can be planned ahead with some certainty of what the market want or needs.

Our visitor sees ominous signs of statism already in America and he keeps entreating Americans "avoid it at all costs! You are the hope of the world!"

Them's heady words for Cinderella!

Who can tell? We may yet wind up Miss America!

Steel Inventories Low Despite Records

NEW YORK, May 25.—(INS)—The magazine Iron Age says that despite new steelmaking records almost every week, steel users are having little or no success in building up inventories.

A survey made by the national metalworking weekly among steel users in all major consuming areas of the country uncovering the following situation:

First, all major steel items are now in tight supply and the pressure is mounting instead of decreasing.

Second, flat-rolled products are most critical, with some users getting panicky.

Third, steel is regarded as better than money in the bank by many users—whether they did it or not.

Fourth, some plants are being forced to shut down intermittently because of steel shortages, usually in cold-rolled sheets.

Fifth, other plants are operating on a hand-to-mouth basis, with uncertain steel delivery playing havoc with production schedules.

June Designated As Special Month

HARRISBURG, May 25.—(INS)—Gov. James H. Duff has joined with governors throughout the country in proclaiming June as a month of "rededication to those American ideals and principles of freedom we inherited from our founding fathers."

The observance will be climaxed June 25 when the National Editorial association will sponsor ceremonies at Plymouth Rock, Mass.

Try And Stop Me

By BENNETT CERF

Whitney Darrow, Jr., the famous cartoonist, met his bride in the editorial sanctum of a magazine. She was running an entertainment department when young Darrow spied her and demanded of some underling (the boss possibly), "What's the name of that attractive girl?" "Middy," was the answer. "How's that?" said Whitney. "Middy," repeated his informer, "as in blouse." So for three weeks Whitney wooed her in the belief that her name was Middy Asinblouse.

A leading magazine sent a trusted operative to cover the dedication ceremonies of a new amusement center in Miami Beach this winter. There was all the hoopla once reserved for successful Channel swimmers. A couple of thousand good-natured kibitzers even consented to learn a special song for the occasion. It was called "In Miami Beach the Sun Is Shining". Unfortunately, the rendition of this song was delayed by a slight technicality—a torrential downpour. Natives are convinced California scalawags had something to do with it!

In the basement of Mahoning school, Boy Scouts troop 4 assembled for their final regular meeting of the season, with Scoutmaster Bill Weitz in charge.

Dues were all paid up and the boys turned in the money they had on hand into the fund to enable the Scouts to go to summer camp. The projects undertaken were quite a success.

There were patrol corners, where all four patrols made plans for attending the camporee at Lawrence county Boy Scout camp on the Frew Mill road this week-end Friday and Saturday. All Scouts who plan on going to camp will meet at the scoutmaster's home, 102 West Madison avenue, as soon as possible after school Friday afternoon. The Scouts should arrive with all their equipment, ready to leave at five o'clock.

Assistant scoutmasters John Hall and Don Weisbaker were in charge of the games period. Details about the troop's summer camp will be mailed to each Scout as soon as arrangements have been completed. After adjournment every Boy Scout was given an ice cream treat.

Members of the Immaculate Conception sodality of St. Lucy's church gathered in the afternoon recently in the auditorium for crowning the May queen.

Two hymns were sung. The group formed the rosary and the rosary was said and "Mother Dear" was sung.

Rev. Fr. Sebastian Ippolito blessed the crown and crowned the May queen, Catherine Desimone, who was attired in a white gown with blue satin cape and white satin skull cap. "Ave Maria" was sung by Mary Bursachechi. Two train bearers wore white long dreses were Barbara Rainey and Bertha Naples. Six attendants, Rita Felice, Rose Vitale, Lucille Ramunno, Frances Lombardo, Alba Lombardo and Margaret Martino, wore yellow, pink and green taffeta gowns and carried colonial bouquets. The benediction was given by Rev. Ippolito. After benediction all marched to the outside of the church.

The group sang "Mother Dear" and "Mother Fairest". Rev. Stanlaus Zachowitz read the litany to "Our Lady". All recited "Memorare". Sermon was given by Rev. Fr. Peter A. Kauenzig from St. Mary's church, Beaver Falls. All sang the crowning hymn as Catherine was crowning the Blessed Virgin Mary. The six attendants presented flowers to Blessed Virgin Mary. The holy angels, Jr., Children of Mary, and Immaculate Conception sodalities presented carnations to Our Lady. Then all marched to the church basement.

Youngstown Man Is Identified In Pittsburgh Holdup

PITTSBURGH, May 25.—(INS)—A Youngstown man, who was convicted of killing his partner in a 1931 holdup in Pittsburgh, has been "positively" identified as one of two gunmen who robbed the Allegheny Sportsmen's club in Pittsburgh, April 26.

Police said one of the victims, Davey Johns, of Pittsburgh, identified the suspect as one of those participating in the early morning stickup. Harry Krause, an ex-boxer who suffered three slight bullet wounds in the holdup, also has identiifed the suspect. He is John L. Keenan, 41, who was arrested by Youngstown police Tuesday. The suspect was traced through a cleaning mark in a hat left at the scene of the holdup.

Keenan, who was being held as a parole violator, denied any part in the holdup. Described by police as the "blacksheep" of a respected Youngstown family, Keenan served three and a half years in the Western Pennsylvania penitentiary for the death of a partner, Austin Cullinan, in a Christmas Day holdup in Pittsburgh in 1931.

Cullinan was struck by a bullet from Keenan's gun which went off when Keenan slugged a shoe store operator on the head.

War Not Imminent Belief Of Western European Nations

PHILADELPHIA, May 25.—(INS)—A Philadelphia banker recently returned from a visit abroad says western European nations do not think that war is imminent.

Frederick A. Potts, president of the Philadelphia National Bank, said after a five-week tour to eight European countries that he thought Denmark has the greatest fear of Russia.

He found that the people of western Germany refused to consider the possibility of war "because if they did, they would be so busy worrying that they would be unable to work."

Potts remarked that the recovery of western European nations was greater than he had expected to find, with Germany and Holland making the greatest strides towards recovery.

The first president's child born in the White House was Esther Cleveland, second child of Grover Cleveland, in 1893.

Volant Lions Have Meeting

Fire Protection And Other Issues Dicussed

One of the fullest programs of recent months was enjoyed by the Volant Lions at their meeting in the Methodist church this week. The need for added fire protection, the work of the Junior Sportsmen, election of officers for the coming year, and an interesting speaker combined to make the entire evening one of great importance.

Representing the New Wilmington fire department, "Bud" Anderson and W. Fillmore Campbell were present to impress the importance of the Volant boro and its vicinity in cooperating in the purchase of new equipment for their fire-fighters. A truck has recently been purchased which will give added protection to everyone in the community, with a drive for funds being given impetus by the department and the press. The Volant Lions, cognizant of the need for the additional vehicle, voted to canvass the district for additional funds toward its purchase.

Another matter agreed upon was that the club should donate cash for aiding the Junior Sportsmen buy equipment for their newly formed baseball team.

Election Results

Election results showed Paul Shaw as the new president, Harold Shaw and Rev. A. B. Weisz retained their offices of treasurer and Secretary, respectively; Rev. William Lloyd, chaplain; lion tamer, Ralph Cunningham, and tail twister, Stanley Moore. Bulletin editor will be Alvin Silvis, the three vice presidents, Elmer Brown, W. J. Wilkin and Frank Barczyk, and on the board of directors are P. M. Cox, Walter Lesnett, R. W. Scott and Jesse Heckathorne.

Dr. A. J. Lyons of the Bashline-Rossman hospital in Grove City gave a most informative talk on the topic of "Socialized Medicine". He stated that this is a universal problem and cannot be said to be either Democratic or Republican, and that we are already footing the bill for England's struggle with it. He also remarked that an increasing number of people are receiving medical care annually and said that one remedy which would be most effective would be for these same people to return to the habit, or acquire it, of attending regular services at their church and Sunday school.

Continuing on the trend of consultation of medical men, Lyons said that more and more specialists are practicing, making it necessary for the patient to demand the services of many men where formerly one doctor had sufficed. According to Dr. Lyons, the problem facing America is one that must be considered by each one of us that we may decide what our stand on it will be. He gave many facts and figures to bear out his statements, making his talk one of great interest to the 27 present.

CULTIVATE CAREFULLY

When cultivating the new strawberry patch, be careful to keep from going too deep, reminds C. S. Bittner ,extension fruit specialist of the Pennsylvania tSate college. Do not cover up the crowns of the plants because the soil will smother them. Cultivating will encourage prompt rooting of the runner plants.

OUTDOOR RAMBLES with N. R. CASILLO

BLACK AND WHITE

The part albino robin in which the people in the vicinity of Spruce and Raymond streets have shown much interest, has already had one nest destroyed by an itinerant cat. It is hoped that its second attempt at raising a family is more successful. The bird is reported to have white wings and a kind of a collar extending down to its breast.

Partial abinism is not too unusual in both birds and mammals, frequently the combination of white with the creature's regular color producing grotesque effects such as is seen in piebald blackbirds.

Practically all animals are subject to albinism and also to its opposite known as melanism. Pure white rabbits with pink eyes are albinos. However, pure white rabbits with eyes of another color are not. It is not uncommon to run across white pheasants, crows, groundhogs, porcupines, squirrels, deer and even trout. Some animals seemingly have a predisposition for the peculiarity. English sparrows with one or more white tail or wing feathers are often seen.

Many hunters who have encountered the black squirrels in some of our northern counties, notably Forest, recognize it as a distinct species. In reality, it is simply a melanistic form of the common gray squirrel, the phenomenon being the rule rather than the exception when malanism once gets started in the squirrels of a given area. Likewise, pure albino parents will unfailingly produce albino offspring, one of the most striking examples being the herd of white deer on Grand Island up in Lake Superior.

During our college days an albino human male regularly attended the swimming classes. He had all of the characteristics common to albinos; yellowish white hair, pinkish skin and pink eyes, the lack of pigment in the latter vividly disclosing the fine blood vessels which really impart the pink color. "Whitey," as he was called, shunned bright sunlight, his eyes unable to withstand the actnic rays of the sun.

An albino porcupine

He readily admitted that his vision in the dark was no better than that of one having normal eyes, although the story was current that he could outsee a cat Since the condition is caused by a lack of pigment, his skin had little if any immunity against sunburn. Pink eyes and white lashes. Imagine!

BYWAYS

Due to the belated spring weather the big redhorse suckers have not yet reached the peak of their annual run although some fish are being taken. Young Dave Hoyland took one in Elk creek up in Erie county that weighed more than seven-pounds. According to Carlisle Sheldon, Crawford county fish warden, the fish should be running until the end of this month.

Fine catches of crappie bass are being made at Pymatuning. About a week ago the writer saw two limit strings taken from the "Woodpile" up near the Linesville end of the reservoir. By mid-afternoon of that same day, every one of the 150 boats at the main boat livery near Jametown, were in use, presumably by crappie fishermen.

The fine pool under Christley's bridge on Wolf creek should be investigated by sucker fishermen. At almost any time during the spring run many hundreds of both black and white suckers may be seen milling about in the clear water. Christley's bridge is about two-miles out of Slippery Rock on the North Liberty road.

Last Sunday the writer was hailed out of a Crawford county restaurant to view a fourteen-pound channel catfish being proudly hauled home by a quartet of anglers. It was taken in Pymatuning.

THE FAMILY SCRAPBOOK

By DR. ERNEST G. OSBORNE

What An Appetite!

Fifteen-year-old Tom raids the icebox as soon as he gets home from school. He's had a big lunch too, and supper is only an hour or so away. Sue and Anne, his teenage sisters, arent' far behind. What appetites these youngsters of ours have!

Sometimes we get a little worried about it. When they were younger, they may have been almost "finicky" about food. Now they stow it away as though they were young elephants. In spite of ourselves, we may try to put on the brakes.

At the fast-growing period that is adolescence youngsters need a lot of fuel. Eating between meals isn't the problem that it was at a more youthful stage. Even the "Dagwood" sandwich eaten an hour before dinner has little effect on their appetites.

Unless we have some very definite evidence that these young people of ours are overeating we should not try to discourage their interest in food. It may mean that we have to add a little to the food budget. And it isn't a bad idea to stock up the refrigerator with good, wholesome food that they know can be devoured without upsetting menu plans. Plenty of fruit milk, cheese, bread and butter are most acceptable.

TROGGIO-COPPLE PLEDGE OF VOWS

Mr. and Mrs. Donald Copple are honeymooning in New York, Washington, D. C., and Philadelphia.

They were married at a pretty spring ceremony in St. Mary's church on Saturday morning, May 20, at 9 a.m. with Rev. Fr. Francis M. McCarter hearing the exchange of vows.

Mrs. Copple is the former Miss Margaret Troggio, daughter of Fortunato Troggio of R. D. 6, Butler road. Her husband is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Anthony Copple of Friendship street.

Lustrous slipper satin fashioned the bride's costume. Bordering the filmy nylon yoke of the molded bodice was a fold featured with a calla lily on either shoulder made of the satin. The bouffant skirt was accentuated with folds of satin trimmed on the sides with satin lilies to match those on the bodice, and extended into a flowing cathedral train. A lovely complement to the bridal ensemble was a triple silk illusion veil with a hand rolled hem caught to a lace bonnet trimmed in illusion with seed pearl trim. She carried an arm bouquet of calla lilies centered with an orchid. The bride's oldest brother, Lee Troggio, gave her in marriage.

As maid of honor Miss Sylvia Graziani appeared in a gown of blush pink taffeta. Corded trimming featured the skirt and edged the long matching mitts. A demure Peter Pan collar and a pink net helmet trimmed in lilies of the valley were pleasing accents.

Wearing gowns of aqua taffeta Mrs. Sam Yanessa, Miss Joella Amadei, Miss Alveretta Cerofolini and Miss Grace Buzzelli were bridesmaids in the colorful procession. Shirred bodices highlighted with white lace and capes to match to the gown added to the attractive picture. Their hats were of white net with sweetheart brims and rows of net and tiny aqua flowers. The attendants all carried arm bouquets of roses.

Reggie Troggio, brother of the bride, served the groom as best man. Ushers were Sam Yanessa, Walter Smialowski, Frank Conglose and Benny Mastern.

After the ceremony breakfast was served at the Unione Calabro club. Dinner was held at a local inn and the evening reception was held at the King Humbert hall.

Mr. and Mrs. Copple will reside with the bride's father, R. D. 6, Butler road, upon return from their wedding trip.

Mrs. Copple is a graduate of Shenango high school and is employed by the Commercial Investment Trust corporation. Her husband is a graduate of New Castle high school and is employed by the Shenango Pottery company.

Garden Notes For '50 Season

Where bulbs are to be left in the ground, annual flower seeds may be sown amongst them as the tops die down. Do not plant deep-rooting annuals or perennials over bulbs.

In the border, where vacant spots are likely to appear later, sow such seeds as poppies, marigolds, zinnias, nasturiums and snapdragons.

Tobacco stems or cuttings used as a mulch about asters will help to repel root aphids. Tobacco dust can be mixed with the soil for the same purpose.

If evergreens have not been pruned or sheared now is the time to do it and have them recover quickly. Hedges also should receive their first shearing just as soon as new growth starts, especially if they require thickening.

As fast as the cold frames or spent hot beds become available they can be utilized for sowing seeds of biennial and perennial flowers to produce plants for use in borders this fall.

Pruning of the earliest flowering shrubs can start now and be continued as the various sorts finish flowering. Lilacs should have only the flower heads removed, as a rule.

Industry, Commerce Add Half Million Workers To Payrolls

WASHINGTON, May 25.—(INS)—Industry and commerce added a half million workers to their payrolls from March to April in what the government called "a continued undertone of strength" on the employment front.

The Bureau of Labor Statistics, in making this report, said that industrial and commercial employment at 42.8 million is close to the level of a year ago.

BLS pointed out that an increase of 800,000 in the number of jobs in the past two months compares with a decline of 100,000 in the same period last year.

The first night football game was played in 1904 between a Cherokee Indian team and the Missouri Southwest State Teachers college at Springfield.

WEDDING EXPENSES

"Please outline for me in your column the expenses of the bride and the groom at their wedding. Should the parents of either the bride or the groom help with the expenses of furnishing and buying a home?"

Answer: Lucky are the bride and groom with parents sufficiently well-off to help with the furnishing and buying of their home. This is usually up to the groom unless the bride gives a helping hand with her savings or her salary.

Bride's Expenses: All of her clothes and linens included in her trousseau; all costs of invitations and announcements; her gift to the bridegroom; her gifts to her attendants; all expenses incidental to the reception, such as music decorations, refreshments, rental of hotel rooms for reception purposes, awnings at the door of the home or of the church; fees to church organist and soloist (if any); church decorations; motors to carry the bridal party to and from the church.

Bridegroom's Expenses: The bride's engagement and wedding rings, of course; a wedding present for the bride, which should be something for her personal use; corsages for his own mother and the mother of the bride; his bachelor dinner; the marriage license fee; gifts to the best man and the ushers, as well as their wedding ties, gloves, boutonnieres; his own boutonniere; the clergyman's fee; the bride's bouquet, as well as those for her attendants; all expenses of the wedding trip, including the automobile conveying him and his bride to the railroad station. This may be the car in which he drove with the best man to the church. Of course, if the bride's family has a private car, they may use it for this purpose.

Question: Up to what hour may formal daytime clothes be worn?

Answer: Up to 6 p.m. Evening clothes and dinner clothes are not permissible before that hour.

Present your problems to Miss Markel who will promptly send personal replies to questions from readers inclosing stamped, addressed envelopes.

The program participated in by almost everyone of the 41 members of the senior class proved entertaining as the "lid" was lifted off the lives of the various members of the class, provoking much laughter from the audience. The class night scene moved the audience back a few years to the gay nineties presenting to them a railroad station of that day as a background.

As they embarked "Out Onto the Track of Life", which they entitled their clever little skit, they presented a going away party in the form of a jamboree. The audience thoroughly enjoyed the novelty numbers presented under the direction of J. W. Laughner, high school teacher. The well presented program drew round after round of applause.

Two Will Receive Honorary Degrees From Westminster

Westminster College will confer honorary degrees upon Walter C. Shaw, chairman of the board of G. C. Murphy Co. and Dr. George A. Long, president of Pittsburgh-Xenia seminary, at commencement ceremonies June 5.

Dr. Long will receive a doctor of laws degree. Mr. Shaw will receive a doctor of humanities degree.

The occasion will mark the second time that Dr. Long has been officially honored by the college. He received the doctor of divinity degree in 1925. Dr. Long is a graduate of Westminster College and has served on the board of trustees. He has been president of Pittsburgh-Xenia since 1943. Prior to that he served for 22 years as pastor of the Homestead United Presbyterian Church, Pittsburgh.

Mr. Shaw, a co-founder of G. C. Murphy Co., will be honored in recognition of his service in a business organization founded upon humanitarian principles. Mr. Shaw, along with the late J. S. Mack, purchased controlling interest in an 11-store Murphy chain in 1911. Since that time the organization has grown to 218 stores. Mr. Shaw served as vice-president, sales manager, and president of the organization, before assuming his present position.

Investigation Being Made Of Chest Held By Gen. MacArthur

WASHINGTON, May 25—(INS)—A congressional investigation is being made of a mysterious chest filled with Japanese gold and jewelry held by Gen. MacArthur.

Robert P. Patterson, wartime secretary of war, testified that the key to the chest is in the possession of the American Occupation commander, who is awaiting orders as to its disposition.

Patterson stated that the chest, which is in Tokyo, contained "jewelry, precious items, gold and foreign currency" seized from the Japanese government at the close of the war.

Patterson added that the valuables were "impounded" by MacArthur and "held by him to await further disposition, whether to go toward defraying the costs of the Army of Occupation . . . or for some other purpose. . ."

Rep. Beckworth (D) Tex., chairman of a special House Interstate and Foreign Commerce subcommittee, which heard Patterson, stated Wednesday that a staff investigator has been directed to "undertake an investigation" to determine disposition of the valuables.

Patterson testified before the group last Monday, but his testimony has not heretofore been disclosed.

New Campaign Starts In June

Duff-Fine Leaders Make Arrangements

HARRISBURG, May 25.—(INS)—The Duff-Fine Republican leaders plan to start the preliminaries for the fall campaign rolling about the middle of June. Nothing much in the way of reader interest will come out of the preliminary work but the tempo will change in mid-August in preparation for the formal opening of the fall campaign shortly after Labor Day. Democrats have no special plans for an early start. Duff-Fine leaders, however, must set up more efficient organizations in counties where their ticket was defeated in the primary election. The governor has made it clear that he'll welcome the support of any of the leaders who supported the Kunkel-Cooke slate but that his lieutenants must call the shots. That precludes any cooperation from old line organizations which never will make a political peace with the Duff-Fine combine. Whether the Duff-Fine ticket will have a hard political row to hoe next fall will depend upon the type of campaign that will be waged. Governor Duff, who won the U. S. senatorial nomination, will make that decision after a breather from the primary.

Governor Duff's first news conference following his successful bid for the U. S. senatorial nomination in the primary election was a marked contrast to the one held in 1948 after he had been defeated in his attempts to sidetrack the presidential nomination of Gov. Thomas E. Dewey in the GOP national convention. After the convention in 1948, Duff dropped out of sight for awhile and didn't hold a news conference for many weeks. When he did he was abrupt and skittish on politics. He never refused, however, to see newsman privately and still extends the courtesy. This year his initial news conference was marked by Duff's hearty laughter and eagerness to answer questions.

The Duff-Fine ticket's purge of Pike county GOP Assemblyman Warner Depuy, overshadowed a similar ouster of a prominent senator who glossed over his personal dislike for the political convolutions of Governor Duff. He is James A. Geltz, defeated by Assemblyman Robert D. Fleming, a political neighbor in Allegheny county, after three four-year terms in the upper chamber. Geltz was chairman of senate finance committee and as such had a lot to say about Duff's tax program in committee. He was blamed by Duff leaders for holding up the tax program during the last session. Geltz was majority leader for the 1941 and 1942 sessions. Fleming is a tobacco-chewing, belt-hitching, down-to-earth and altogether ambitious Republican who went after Geltz's scalp with the approval of Governor Duff. Fleming served in the house from 1939 to 1949.

The Pennsylvania Nurses' Association has indicated in its monthly publication that leaders finally realize the main reason lawmakers have not been too seriously impressed with the nursing lobby. "One of the criticisms that our senators and representatives have given us is that not enough nurses themselves are familiar with the legislative program; therefore the legislators wonder if we are all in accord concerning our aims," wrote Miss Martha C. Forejt, R.N., legislative. Key nurses were selcted, Miss Forejt reported, to explain the program to nurses. The association will sponsor a bill during the 1951 session providing mandatory licensure of registered and professional nurses with the practice of professional nursing clearly defined. The association will support another bill, slated to be sponsored by a state agency, providing for the licensure of practical nurses.

Hayrides Banned In Wexford Area

WARRENDALE, Pa., May 25.—(INS)—State police today banned hayrides in the nearby Wexford district because there is "nothing more dangerous on a highway than a slow-moving hay wagon."

Although Sgt. John J. Burke of the Warrendale sub station said he expects opposition to his regulation from six groups who conduct the rides, he claimed the pastime is "a terrible hazard and nuisance."

"There are many rank violations to hayride wagons, such as brakes and lights," the sergeant added, "and I'm doing it for their own good and the good of the people who would be going on those rides."

One of Sgt. Burke's fellow troopers said:

"A hayride is one of the best ways I know of to meet the angels."

Today's Fashion Flash

By PHYLLIS BATTELLE

NEW YORK, May 25.—(INS)—Next fall's costume suits—like golf balls—will be smooth on the outside, and tightly wound underneath.

The latest wool ensembles consist of slim, tailored jackets which peel off to reveal sophisticated dresses, snugly clinging of bodice.

Designer Herbert Sondheim indicated today that smart frocks with deceivingly tailored jackets will take their place alongside the conventional skirt-jacket suit. Especially since they serve double-duty.

With jackets, they're spectator sports costumes.

Without, they're sleek cocktail or dancing outfits.

Newest fabric for costume suits will be "wood chiffon"—warm as its first name, but slinky as its last!

Workers Under 18 Need Certificates

Boys and girls between the ages of 14 and 18, intending to work during the summer, should apply for employment certificates as soon as possible, it is announced by Dr. Frank L. Burton, superintendent of the city schools.

Birth records are needed when application is made, it is reported.

Employers are warned that they are liable to fine if any person in this age group is employed without permission. The employer is held responsible for failure to apply, Dr. Burton states.

Applications may be made at the Administration building on East street. This does not apply to persons living in the townships. These persons must apply at the school districts in the communities where thye live.

Plan For DVBS At Castlewood Church

Plans have been completed in Castlewood, and vicinity for a two week Daily Vacation Bible school to be conducted by Mrs. Lola Hogue. Mrs. Hogue has effectively carried on the work over the past few years with the school expanding, each year.

The school is entirely interdenominational in nature and teaching, as well as in the plan of administration. The Bible is the text book, with splendid helps being used to guide in the study. Hand work as a means of education is used to bring out the meaning and purpose of the Bible to the students' personal life each day.

Expressional work for all classes and ages of students gives the individual an opportunity to express or explain the impressions made by the stories, parables, sermons, miracles and ministrations of Jesus to and upon the mind of the child. Flannelgraph lessons are used in devotions each morning.

The faculty of the school invites each boy and girl in the community from four to 14 to attend the school. Sessions are to be held in the Christian and Missionary Alliance church, Castlewood beginning on Monday, June 5, at 9 a.m. and will continue Monday through Friday at the same hour for the following two weeks. The school closes at noon.

WORLD WIDE EXPLORER BEFRIENDS DOG

—Acme Telephoto

WASHINGTON, D. C.—Adm. Richard E. Byrd, North and South Pole explorer, is an embarrassed "smuggler" after bringing stary pooch into his hotel here. The dog, who met the Admiral on a Washington street and followed him to the hotel, has been with Byrd for two days and the Admiral would like to find the real owner. The dog looks much like a pooch which was with the Admiral at the North Pole 24 years ago. It might be called a Byrd dog.

Heavy Bloom Points To Banner Harvest Of Fruit This Year

HARRISBURG, May 25.—(INS)—Heavy bloom of fruit trees in northern counties points to a banner harvest this year, the agriculture department reports.

"Fruits in southern counties where the bloom is also heavy have set well and are rapidly attaining size," the department announced.

Wet weather has slowed corn development but wheat has prospered. Oats in southern and central counties look good and many fields of winter barley and rye are in head.

The outlook for grains, vegetables and fruits are excellent for this year, the department announced.

Seniors Prepare For Class Day

It's all set. The biggest day in the eyes of Seniors—Class Day—will be staged Friday morning at New Castle High.

Baccalaureate, commencement and the dinner-dance are all very important but Class Day is the day for having fun, and is probably the last time many of the seniors will be frolicking together as students.

More than 170 will participate in the Class Day program at Senior High school in the morning. All levels of school life from the students on up to administration will be represented.

Unusual Program

This year the seniors have chosen a medieval castle as the background of the program and have knit the various acts into one continuous dialogue. A jazz band, A capella choir, and faculty participants will be on hand as well as the traditional knocker, prophet, class will, and handing the ax ceremony.

A picnic at Idora Park follows in the afternoon. Free dancing and a reduction in concession prices will be available to the celebrants.

Miss Mildred Burleson and Miss Marilyn Reeves are the faculty members in charge of the program.

Baccalaureate services will be held Sunday evening at the Cathedral and commencement is Monday, May 29. Almost 100 percent of the class has signed to attend the final event on the senior calendar, the dinner-dance, on May 31.

First modern "best-seller" book in the United States was In His Steps, written by Rev. Charles M. Sheldon, in 1899.

St. Mary's Church Has May Crowning

Sodalists of Our Lady's Sodality of St. Mary's church conducted beautiful and impressive May crowning services Sunday at 3 p.m. in the church.

Led by standard bearer, Miss Nancy Lehman, and banner bearer,, Miss Lorena Lehman, the sodality started the crowning with a living rosary. The rosary was recited by Miss Carolyn Pearce with the other sodalists making the responses.

Then came the queen's court comprised of the officers of the sodality: Peg O'Leary, Betty Hannon, Eileen Campbell, Patty Kennedy, Ann Heaney, Donna Hogue, Rosalie Gallagher and Rita Logue. The crown bearer was Danny Fee and the train bearers were Juanita Quinn and Germaine Fee.

After receiving the blessed crown from Rev. Fr. Gerard Kelly, the director, the May queen, Miss Geraldine Fee, solemnly crowned the statue of Our Blessed Lady.

The Litany and Act of Consecration were recited by the sodalists followed by the presentation of flowers by the officers of the sodality.

This was followed by the sermon, given by Rev. Fr. Bernard O'Brien, assistant at St. Brendan's church, Braddock, Pa. Fr. O'Brien spoke on the relation of Our Lady to us and the fact that she truly is Our Blessed Mother.

In closing, solemn benediction was given, with Rev. Fr. Francis McCarter as celebrant, Rev. Fr. Francis King as deacon and Rev. Fr. Gerard Kelly as sub-deacon.

A short recessional followed with group pictures taken.

ADOPT ROBINS

SPANGLER, Pa., May 25—(INS)—Nurses in the maternity ward at Miners Hospital in Spangler have adopted a pair of robins which built a nest just outside a window of the ward.

Now, they are waiting for four eggs to be hatched.

Name Winners Of School Tournament

An exciting marble tournament took place at the North and Croton schools during the past few days, it has been announced by Arthur Walker, principal of the two schools.

Competition was keen in both contests, and following numerous rounds, James Pander of grade 3-1 at the North street school emerged victor at that school. At Croton, the champ proved to be Harvey Coleman of Grade 4-2. The Croton contest was conducted this morning. The lads along with representatives of other city schools, will compete in a city-wide contest. The winner will go to Atlantic City in national competition.

FOSSIL COLLECTOR

WOOSTER, O.—(INS)—A 23-year-old Wooster college senior is using research materials that are 300 million years old for his independent study project. Lowell Bogart, a geology major, has collected more than 200 fossils representing 60 or more species of animals that lived 150 million years before dinosaurs roved the earth. Bogart picked these fossils out of a shale pit and along creeks in the Killbuck Valley in Wayne county, Ohio.

Dinner-Dance Program Plans For Seniors Complete

Graduates of the Class of 1950, New Castle senior high school will probably remember their dinner-dance for some time. Scheduled for Wednesday night, May 31, in the Cathedral this year's affair will be something different than previous years.

Some months ago a group of parents of graduates met and discussed a plan used in many other cities, that of augmenting the seniors' dinner-dance program with entertainment which would run long enough that it would obviate the usual driving the highways after the dance.

Students Co-Operate

The senior class was asked if it would co-operate in staying in the city if the parents would secure attractive entertainment for the after midnight hours and the students agreed.

Dr. John A. Meehan was named chairman of the parents committee and since then has done an unusual job in co-ordinating effort and naming plans.

The plan for the "After Midnight Safety Party" is now arranged. Blue Barron, famous bandsman and his band have been secured for the dancing which will start immediately after the dinner program is over. At midnight the parents committee come in with their share of the program and this will include a four-act floor show and a nationally known "emcee," a lot of valuable gifts as prizes for such things as jitterbug contests, waltz contests, lucky numbers and the like.

Soft drinks, sandwiches and snacks will be available to the students and the program outlined will run until about three o'clock.

The dinner program and the early hours of the dance program will be chaperoned by members of the senior high school faculty. From midnight on the chaperones will be the parents of students who are helping present the program and the snacks.

Each student will be given a card with a number upon it and the student will sign the card. Any student desiring to leave after midnight may do so, but his card will be time stamped and once time stamped and the student has left, he will not be permitted to return. This is not an attempt to control the actions of any one. It is merely a precaution and a guarantee to parents of students as to the time they left the building.

General Chairman Dr. John A. Meehan today announced a general committee meeting Friday night in the GNCA offices in the Castleton Hotel, at 8 o'clock. All committee members are asked to be present to complete the final details of the program.

Around Hollywood

By FRANK NEILL

(International News Service Staff Correspondent)

HOLLYWOOD, May 25.—Janet Leigh got what she wanted and as a result is scared stiff.

For the past couple of years Janet has been yanking at producers' sleeves in the happy hope that somehow she would be able to latch onto a role in a musical.

So she winds up with the starring role in RKO's technicolor "Two Tickets To Broadway."

Janet, whose real name is Jeanette Morrison, admitted today:

"When this project was in the discussion stage, no one was more confident than I.

"I confessed that I couldn't sing like Judy Garland or dance like Vera-Ellen—and maybe my legs weren't as sensational as Betty Grable's. But I figured that what I lacked in these departments I could overcome with hard work."

Discovered by Norma

Janet, who was "discovered" five years ago by Norma Shearer at Merced, Cal., has been working hard for two months, going through a strenuous routine which would wear out a ditchdigger.

Janet said:

"This workout may not make me the finest dancer since Pavlova but it certainly is going to leave little Leigh the healthiest gal in Hollywood."

What scares Janet, because it surprises her, is the amount of effort which goes into making a musical. She thought it was just a lot of fancy singing and dancing.

"It's such a specialized field," she said. "No inexperienced Tom, Dick or Harriet can just walk in and take over. What's fun on the screen is plain hard work on the sound stages."

Chauncey Westphal-White is a man of distinction in movietown.

He is the only British actor who appears exclusively in shoot-em-up hoss operas.

Chauncey, now at Universal-International in scenes for "Francie," looks like something a movie producer discovered near Tombstone, Ariz. But Westphal-White actually was born in Sussex county, England, so of a goldsmith.

"I make my living as an actor," explained Chauncey, "and it's not my fault that I look like the western type."

Only trouble with his film career, the Britisher added, is that he's doomed to non-speaking roles. His accent sounds like a brief discussion in the House of Lords.

Strange Lover Thief Arrested In France

PARIS, (INS)—French police have arrested the "Sentimental Bandit", who coddled his illegitimate son like a mother.

Charles Rivelo, an Italian migrant worker who doubled in thievery and romance, refused to give up his bouncing 8-month-old son Jean-Claude when picked up near Bordeaux.

As a result, early morning commuters in Paris were astonished several days later by a weird procession which crossed the city from one railroad station to another.

In the lead came a burly "gendarme" carrying a large pillow case stuffed with baby clothes and diapers. Rivelo, snuggling his carefully wrapped baby, and surrounded by a formidable police escort followed meekly along behind.

Rivelo told police the sad story of a frustrated father . . . his children always carried the name of another man.

Before the war, he said, a woman bore his two children, but she was already married. After his deportation by the Germans, he never saw them again.

He had a child by another married woman last year. This time he kidnapped the baby — which legally belonged to the innocent husband — in order to "become a father." He also made off with a bottle and a supply of diapers.

For three months, when not stealing throughout Western France, according to police, he lavished every care on his son. When arrested he was pushing him —in a stolen cariarge—along a lonely country road.

Wayward Balloon Found Unharmed

COLUMBUS, O., (INS)—Talk about "Flying Saucers."

Little David Vermaaten was frequently losing his balloons. His father suggested that if he put his name on the balloons they would be returned.

So five-year-old David attached his name and address on some ten-cent balloons and let them fly.

Five days later he received a postcard saying that one of the balloons had been found in Big Run, Jefferson County, Pa., which is approximately 250 miles from Columbus.

The postcard read: "Found your balloon here this morning, if you want it returned, answer."

Kiwanis Club Hears Klebe

County Detective Tells About Work Of F.B.I.

New Castle Kiwanis club members heard an interesting talk at their noon luncheon meeting in The Castleton Wednesday, when they were addressed by Howard C. Klebe, county detective, former F.B.I. agent.

Mr. Klebe told about the work of the F.B.I. in the postwar world During the war, he stated, a great amount of the F.B.I. work was in combatting the work of enemy agents, and the search for subversive agents.

Since that time, however, the F.B.I. has resumed its activities of combatting major crime, such as bank robberies, kidnapings, extortion, etc. In addition it is assisting with the Federal loyalty program requiring that all Federal employes be persons who are loyal to their government.

Guard Atomic Energy

In the prosecution of this effort it was found that few employes needed to be fired for disloyalty Many who were suspected, and who probably were guilty, resigned when they found they were under suspicion.

The F.B.I. is also in charge of investigating all persons employed in the production of atomic energy. The bureau also assists in collecting and coordinating information on any individual considered subversive, he stated.

Although the people of the United States enjoy more privileges than in any other nation there are a great many people who take full advantage of this fact, Mr Klebe pointed out. People who are accused of subversive activities, are the first ones to claim their rights are being violated, and accuse the F.B.I. of abusing them, when the F.B.I. really handles such people with kid gloves.

Everyone should help in the enforcement of the laws of the land, whether Federal or local, he stated He invited his audience to present any evidence they have of wrongdoing locally, assuring the group that they would receive every consideration.

Lee Whiting, scoutmaster of Kiwanis troop, was presented with a Bible by the club for the use of the troop in its ceremonies.

Clare M. Lutz, local postal employe, addressed the club on the impending curtailment of postal service here, telling them what it would mean to them, and urging them if interested, in contacting their congressmen to express their opinion in the matter.

Justice Department To Ban Communists From Relief Rolls

HARRISBURG, May 25.—(INS)—The State Justice Department is ready to ban Communists from relief rolls.

Attorney General T. McKeen Chidsey said he will follow the precendent-setting policy he laid down when he directed that Mrs Antoinnette Nuss, 28, of Pittsburgh, be taken off relief because she allegedly had attended meetings of a Communist cell.

"We certainly will do the same in the case of everyone else we learn of," Chidsey said.

The attorney general said in his opinion that attendance at Communist meetings is tantamount to "participation in a movement to change the United States form of government by means not provided for in the constitution."

Chidsey explained he based his decision on a 1941 amendment to the 1937 State Public Assistance law. The amendment made participants in subversive activities ineligible for relief.

Mrs. Nuss reportedly signed an affidavit when she applied for relief swearing that she would not take part in a movement to overthrow the government.

MICAH GIVES HOPE OF SALVATION

PROMISES PEACE AND PROSPERITY FOR ISRAEL.

Scripture—Micah 4: 1-5; 5:2-4; 7:18-20.

The Christ.

"God will teach us of His ways, and we will walk in His paths."
—Micah 4:2.

By NEWMAN CAMPBELL

The whole book of Micah is given us for a lesson today as it was last week. We concentrate especially, today, however, on the promises Jehovah made—through Micah—to His people if they would return to Him as their God and do His will.

It is thought Micah prophesied around 725 B. C. The city of Jerusalem is still in existence, and often referred to in the daily newspapers and radio newscasts. The prophecy made more than 2,500 years ago, however, still is not fulfilled.

It is a Holy City to Christians because it was the place where Jesus walked, healed and taught, and of his trials and condemnation. To the Jewish people it is David's city, where David's son, Solomon, built the great temple, and the center of their worship. There is talk that it may be made an international city.

What was the prophecy? In Micah's words:

"But in the latter days (meaning the end of the age) it shall come to pass, that the mountain of Jehovah's house shall be established on the top of the mountains, and it shall be exalted above the hills; and peoples shall flow up unto it.

"And many nations shall go and say, Come ye, and let us go up to the mountain of Jehovah, and to the house of the God of Jacob; and He will teach us of His ways, and we will walk in His paths. For out of Zion shall go forth the law, and the word of Jehovah to Jerusalem;

"And He will judge between many peoples, and will decide concerning strong nations afar off: and they shall beat their swords into plowshares, and their spears into pruning hooks; nation shall not lift up sword against nation, neither shall they learn war any more.

"But they shall sit every man under his vine and under his figtree, and none shall make them afraid; for the mouth of Jehovah of Hosts hath spoken it."

The dream of peace on earth never dies. It is as old as man himself.

Children and older folk may be moved by the music of these words of the poet, spoken so long ago and addressed to the distressed people of Israel.

The picture that it gives us of a peaceful scene where no man was likely to be called to go to battle, but all the implements of war were made into instruments of peace—to serve man instead of killing him, can be subject of talk and suggestions for the younger children, and discussions among the older class members. Even atomic energy can be used for the benefit, instead of the destruction, of mankind and civilization.

Then comes the Messainic prophecy that runs through so many books of the Old Testament. The Christ shall come out of Judah—Christ's own tribe. "Out of Bethlehem shall one come forth unto me that is to be ruler in Israel; whose goings forth are from old, from everlasting."

After He came, "then the residue of His brethren shall return unto the children of Israel.

"And He shall stand and feed His flock in the strength of Jehovah, in the majesty of the name of Jehovah His God: and they shall abide; for now shall He be great unto the ends of the earth."

Bethlehem was the birthplace of David, the only king of Israel to be born there. There the new king should be born—not in Jerusalem, the city of David. It pre-supposes that the family of David had fallen into poverty.

The last reference in our lesson is a song of praise to our God:

"Who is a God like unto Thee, that pardoneth iniquity, and passeth over the transgression of the remnant of His heritage? He retaineth not His anger for ever, because He delighteth in loving-kindness.

"He will again have compassion upon us; He will tread our iniquities under foot; and thou wilt cast all their sins into the depths of the sea."

God loves His children and forgives our sins if we are truly repentant and turn to Him, the prophet Micah asserts.

Ohio Farmers Don't Want Brannan Plan Says State Bureau

WASHINGTON, May 25.—(INS)—The Ohio Farm Bureau Federation says that only 15 per cent of the state's farmers favor the Brannan plan backed by President Truman.

The federation, reporting preliminary returns from a poll of Ohio farmers, declared that 63 percent of the Buckeye state farmers favor present farm control legislation with modifications.

It is registered as significan that Sen. Taft (R) Ohio, who is up for reelection this year, favors only minor changes in the present law. His Democratic opponent Joseph Ferguson, presumably is a supporter of the administration's Brannan plan.

Results of the Ohio poll were announced by John W. Sims, executive secretary of the federation, who heads a delegation of 43 Buckeye farm men and women appearing in Washington to talk with President Trumen, their Congressmen and administration and congressional farm leaders.

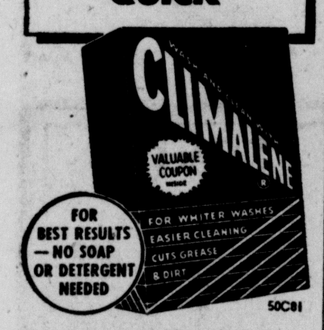

Sims said that a sizeable minority of Ohio farmers returned an "unexpected" poll vote for no government crop support at all. He said 32 per cent of those answering the bureau's questions were against farm regulation.

BLINDNESS INCREASES

NEW YORK, May 24.—(INS)—Dr. Leona Baumgartner, associate chief of the Federal Security Agency's children's bureau, said today that blindness among children due to pre-natal causes has increased 17 per cent since 1936.

Standard of New Jersey and Ohio lost small fractions in the oils.

Television issues softened with Philco off 1⅛ at 45⅜. Motorola down ½ at 43 and Zenith off ⅜ at 55¾.

Rails were irregularly lower Atchison was up ½ to 113½ but Rock Island was down ⅝ at 42⅞ and New York Central was off ⅛ at 14.

McKEESPORT "BOYS TOWN"

McKEESPORT, Pa. — (INS) — Work has begun on McKeesport's version of "Boys Town".

The one million dollar project was made possible by the late Mrs. Pauline Auberle, who left an 18-acre tract and her entire estate for a boys' school and church.

Plans call for a resident home for 169 boys and a temporary chapel. The permanent chapel and field house will come later.

PHILADELPHIA—(INS)—Philadelphia's census bureau will use 900 mechanical brains and 3,500 employes to tabulate the vital statistics of three-fourths of the nation's population.

The tremendous task will mean wading through some five million facts produced by the 1950 census.

Urges Removal Of Point Four

WASHINGTON, May 25.—(INS)—Sen. Millikin (R) Colo., asked the Senate today to eliminate the "fantastic" point four program for aiding underdeveloped areas from the $3,121,450,000 foreign aid bill.

Millikin, one of the GOP leaders in the fight against the plan, urged that the bill be returned to Senate-House conferees, who drew up the compromise measure, with orders that point four be removed.

The senator said that the point four provision would "fasten upon the world a fantastic American imperialism and give a deadly weapon to our enemies."

The Senate has agreed to vote on the bill at 4:30 p.m. EDT. Sens. Taft (R) Ohio, and Wherry (R) Neb., also are to make speeches against the bill before the final vote.

THE FAMILY SCRAPBOOK

By DR. ERNEST G. OSBORNE

Family Health

In the olden days most of the doctoring was carried on at home. Goose grease for chest colds, a mustart plaster and other homegrown remedies were applied by mother or father.

Today we depend on registered physicians. Their training, plus the advances made in medicine, bring us a much higher level of health than home treatment could. Yet, there's still a big job for parents.

First of all, we can learn to be aware of signs that sickness is coming on. The tired look, the slightly reddened nose, the irritability that's not customary give us cues that perhaps even a doctor who doesn't know our youngster in his day-by-day reactions might miss.

When our son was younger, for instance, we began to realize that whenever he was especially agreeable—more polite and co-operative than usual—we could pretty well count on the fact that he probably had the beginning of a fever. No one knowing him less well would ever have seen exceptionally good behavior as a sympton of illness.

Close observation of a youngster by a parent will be of help to the doctor. He may be able to tell much more quickly from our reports what is "brewing." In a number of ways, though the days of goose grease are behind us, we parents are still important to the health of our youngsters.

John Versus Sam

Milanovich Brothers To Renew College Basketball Feud Here In Coming Season

Meeting brother Sam as a rival on the basketball court will not be a new experience for John Milanovich, new head basketball coach of New Castle Senior high.

Sam Milanovich is the very successful cage mentor at Aliquippa High, a tough contender and ardent rival of the Red Hurricane in Section Three competition. Sam's team won the state title in 1949, his first year as head coach of the 'Quips. His 1949 team was also the first Section 3 team to ever win the WPIAL crown other than New Castle that grabbed the bunting in 1927 and 1936.

Sam and John were rivals on the hardwood soon after both boys graduated from Aliquippa High. Sam went to Pitt and John played at Geneva. They are currently all even. The one year that they both played first team for their respective schools, Pitt won at Pittsburgh and Geneva was the victor in the Beaver Falls encounter.

Army Sergeant

John did nearly five years in the army after graduating from Geneva. His duties included being a cadre sergeant at Camp Croft, S. C., where he was gunnery instructor for many Lawrence county army recruits. The ex-soldiers report that the coach was intelligent, level-headed, and very competent.

His high school basketball coaching experience has all been at Corry High. The record there was 42 wins against 47 losses over a four-year span. Perhaps the percentage wasn't too good but it was compiled in a league against Erie high schools and without the benefit of a single six-footer during that time.

Likes Big Boys

The new coach says that he likes big, aggressive players and prefers the fast type of basketball. However, he always adapts his style of play according to the material available. Fundamentals are the most important thing in his mind no matter what style of play is used.

Milanovich's biggest problem right now is finding living accommodations for his family. He plans to move his wife and three daughters here this summer.

The coach wants to get acquainted with the players and material available, and also find out about YMCA and intra-mural activity that would lend strength to the 1950-51 Red Hurricane.

He believes that the junior highs are an important developing point for a basketball player and he hopes to take an active interest in that field.

Volant 4-H Girls Share In Program

In observance of Go-To-Church Sunday, members of the Volant girls' 4-H club took part in the worship service at the Volant Methodist church Sunday morning, May 21.

Introduced by Rev. Harry Silvis, pastor of the church, they conducted the interval usually dedicated to youth. Directed by their local leader, Mrs. Frank Barr, the girls gave their pledge, sang the "4-H Pastorale", "All Through the Night" and "The 4-H Hymn". They were accompanied at the piano by Miss Gladys Barr.

Giving added impressiveness to their program, each girl had brought bouquets of flowers which were placed on the altar rail and around the pulpit. They included iris, bridal wreath, lilacs, lilies-of-the-valley and tulips.

Members of the club present Sunday were Eleu and Elaine Wilkin, Thelma Barr, Marjorie Lesnett, Martha and Nancy Shaffer, Paige Anne Wilkin, Margery Ferree and Elizabeth Buchanan.

Seek Books For Library

South New Castle Boro Plans Library

South New Castle boro residents are proud of their district, but there are two things needed up there.

A playground for the children and a library.

Playgrounds and libraries cost a lot of money and the majority of the citizens of South New Castle Boro are men and women who work hard, pay their bills, rear their families, but have little left in the way of ready money.

They believe they can get together a library of sorts with a little help from residents of other parts of the county. Today it was announced they are asking for children's books of any kind which might be placed on book shelves.

"Treasure Island," "Robinson Crusoe," "Black Beauty," "Peter Pan" these are the type of fiction books they would like and in many homes over the county there must be thousands of volumes of children's books lying idly on shelves, unused because the young readers have grown up.

Other books that would be appreciated are "Book of Knowledge", "Journey Through Bookland", any of the various encyclopedias or other informative books.

It is house cleaning time. Here is a chance to rid your book shelves of unused volumes and at the same time perform a valued service for a neighbor. Any person wishing to contribute books is asked to call either 6468 or 7790-J and the books will be picked up.

Friday night, May 26, a community meeting will be held in the South New Castle Boro school auditorium. At this time it is hoped to get the library under way.

Can you help? And will you?

NEW SWEETENING AGENT

NORTH CHICAGO, Ill., May 25.—(INS)—Abbott Laboratories announced today development of a new sweetening agent which can be used in cooking and baking and will permit diabetics to eat pies, candy and canned foods with no ill effects.

The sugar substitute, known as sucaryl, is non-caloric—has no food value—and was discovered by a young University of Illinois chemist.

Proxy Marriage Not Recognized By Dr. Lindstrom

HOLLYWOOD, May 25.—(INS)—Dr. Peter Lindstrom recognizes neither Ingrid Bergman's divorce nor her proxy marriage to Italian film director Roberto Rossellini.

Lindstrom's attorney, Isaac Facht, declared last night:

"Dr. Lindstrom never has recognized the legality of the Mexican divorce, and we certainly don't give cognizance to a proxy marriage in Juarez, Mexico.

"So far as the doctor is concerned she is still his wife until they are divorced in California."

The attorney said Dr. Lindstrom is proceeding with his divorce suit "just as if the proxy marriage had never taken place."

YOUNG HERO

MANHATTAN BEACH, Cal.—(INS)—Gary Thompson is a hero today—at the ripe age of three years. He's given full credit for saving the life of his little playmate, Mark Geary, also three who toppled into a 25-foot-deep dry cesspool. The sandy rim of the three-foot-wide hole crumpled under the tot. Gary ran home as fast as his chubby legs could carry him and told his mother. She hastily notified Mark's parents. The child's father, aided by neighbors, lowered himself on a rope tied it about the child, and they were lifted out by a fire department rescue squad.

YOUTH BITTEN BY DOG

Norman Flout, Jr., aged 12 years, of Wilmington avenue extension, was treated at the Jameson Memorial hospital at 9:35 p. m. for a dog bite wound of the right leg above the knee. He was bitten while playing with the dog.

Prosecution In Sergeant's Trial Nears Completion

SAN FRANCISCO, May 25.—(INS)—The government is scheduled to complete its case late today against Air Force Sgt. Lyle H. Buswell, husky military policeman accused of raping and strangling an attractive 44-year-old servicewoman.

Over defense objections which Judge Louis E. Goodman rejected, U. S. Attorney Frank Hennessy read to an all-male jury in San Francisco's federal court yesterday an alleged confession by Buswell to the slaying of Women's Air Force Staff Sgt. Fairy E. Decker, of York, Pa.

"I put my hands around her neck," the document quoted the 33-year-old MP as admitting. "I choked her for two or three minutes."

Buswell was quoted further as denying, in the statement introduced in evidence, that he had raped or struck the woman sergeant whose nude body was found at dawn last March 20th near the WAF barracks at Hamilton field air force base, north of San Francisco.

An autopsy report stated Sgt. Decker had been raped as well as strangled, and Buswell, who hails from Rutland, Vt., is charged with criminal assault and murder.

'China Challenge' Film At Leesburg

"China Challenge" an authentic moving missionary film with sound, will be shown at the Leesburg Presbyterian church, Leesburg, during the Youth for Christ rally there. Saturday evening, at 8 o'clock.

The film put out by the Youth for Christ International, depicts in actual life the mission stations of China as taken on a 20,000 mile tour. Rev. James Hanna of Fredonia will be showing the film during the service.

The first elevator with safety devices to prevent its falling was made by Elisha G. Otis in 1853.

Pollock Pupils Conduct School Savings Program

One hundred dollars, or even one hundred cents, would look pretty good to some people right now.

Children at the Pollock avenue school have learned to save their extra money during the school year, and now have quite a nice sum on hand. Peter Grittie, principal at the school, began the program in September, calling it the School Saving Plan.

Since the beginning of the school term, students have start[illegible] 268 accounts, saving $5686.23. These accounts have been handled through a local bank.

Parents presented thrift certificates to the boys and girls at a special program at the school on Wednesday. Miss A. Shepp-s, 5-1 class was the school's leader, with eleven weekly savers. Those who presented the certificates were the P.T.A. committee composed of the Mesdames Rose George, Rose Roselli, Francis Casella, Armena Bullano, Lena Lombardo, Teresa Natale, Mary Gallagher, Francis Cassella, Lena Mastrangelo, Esther Esposito, and Orlando Lucidore.

Peter Grittie commended the group for their lesson in thrift and thanked the parents for their cooperation in the program.

BRIEF SUGGESTIONS ON CHICK BROODING

Here are fifteen suggestions for successful brooding of chickens:

Provide clean, draft-free, vermin-proof quarters.

Equip house with simple, easily workable ventilation arrangement.

Check stove operation before chicks arrive.

Place feeders and waterers above stove like spokes of a wheel.

Use one to two inches of finely broken litter; add frequently and stir daily.

Place guard about stove for training chicks.

Increase guard space daily till guard can be removed in 5 to 7 days.

Operate stove so chicks are comfortable at all times.

Decrease stove temperature as rapidly as possible consistent with comfort, discontinuing heat after chicks are 6 to 10 weeks old.

Increase ventilation as chicks grow older; adjust several times daily to help provide house comfort.

Assure ample floor space always; one-half square foot per chick to 6 weeks—1 square foot to 12 weeks—gradually increasing to adult needs if grown in confinement.

Increase size of feeding equipment and double capacity at three weeks. Use adult size equipment at six weeks.

Fence small yard so chicks can be trained to use range as soon as practicable.

Provide screened roosts at three weeks in small pens or colony houses.

Cull and destroy weak, unthrifty chicks always.

CULTIVATE RASPBERRIES DURING EARLY SEASON

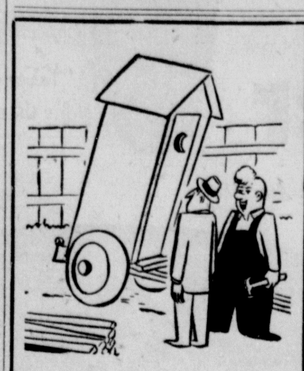

Cultivation already has started in most of the Lawrence County raspberry plantations. Cultivation must be frequent and thorough enough to prevent growth of weeds and grass which would compete with the berries for plant food and water. Also, cultivation should be shallow—not over 2 or 3 inches deep. Deep cultivation close to the plants destroys many of the roots and can do more harm than good. Usually some hand hoeing is necessary to make a good job, although the bulk of the work can be done with a cultivator, harrow, or horse-hoe.

Where practical cultivation should be continued through the fruiting season to loosen ground tramped by pickers, and the plantation should receive a last thorough cultivation in preparation for seeding a cover crop. This should be done after the fruiting season is over and the old canes are removed.

On Small plantings designed for family use, deep mulching with straw will help control weeds, conserve moisture and so add some plant nutrients to the soil. Where mulching is practical a little extra nitrogen is needed for early seaeson plant stimulation.

GROW GARDEN BEETS

One of the most important root crops grown in the garden is the common beet, according to J. O. Dutt, Penn tSate extension vegetable specialist. He names Crosby's Egyptian and Detroit Dark Red as very good varieties.

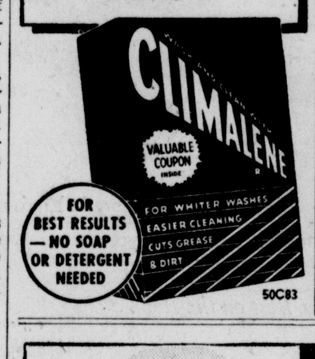

"I'm going to hook it to the back of my trailer!"

Veteran Who Lost Both Legs Loses Driving Privilege

WASHINGTON, May 25.—(INS)—Andrew W. Hopps, 35, who lost both legs in the war, lost his liberty ad his right to drive because he couldn't handle his specially equipped automobile, especially after he had been drinking.

Hopps appealed a two-year jail sentence and a $100 fine for driving while intoxicated, failing to stop after an accident, driving on a revoked permit and reckless driving.

Appelate court Judge Joseph Sherbow took one look at the record, increased the fine to $200 confirmed the jail sentence and ordered the veteran to refrain from driving for five years. If Hopps does this last he only has to stay in jail a month.

Hopps, who gets a $300 a month disabled soldier's pension, received an especially equipped automobile for amputees from the government in 1947.

Methodist Group Meets At Volant

Members of the Volant Methodist Auxiliary met at the church Wednesday to hold a brief business meeting. It has been reported that the group will hold recess until Fall due to the crowded summer calendar of its members.

During the meeting, which was conducted by Mrs. Paul Shaw, plans were presented by the ways and means committee for a Fall Fair to be held in the church dining room. Anyone in the church may prepare entries to be exhibited and all who wish to enter the competition are asked to notify any one of the committee, who are Mrs. Ralph Buchanan, Mrs. Harry Silvis, and Mrs. Elmer Perdue. Handwork of all types, flowers, vegetables, baked goods, toys, garments, bulbs, etc., are eligible for entry. Children as well as adults are urged to plan for the event.

Other business of Wednesday's meeting included the voting to donate a fund to the church for redecorating purposes. In addition to individual contributions made to date, are gifts from the Jolly Comrades' class and from the Junior class. The first was raised at a spaghetti supper early in the month, the latter by a bake sale held in the church dining room Saturday, May 20.

Confer Degrees On K. Of C. Candidates

Conferring of the first degree to a class of candidates took place Wednesday evening, at the regular meeting of the Knights of Columbus Council 512. The meeting took place in the club rooms, East Washington street.

Grand Knight James T. Carey presided. New applications were read and approval followed. The meeting was turned over to the degree team, which consisted of past grand knights of the local council.

On June 1, the council will have a stag party for the members and candidates who are eligible for the major degree. Short talks were given by the members of the degree team.

Benediction was given by James T. Carey and afterwards a buffet lunch was served to the members and those newly initiated. A social hour ensued.

Chester Lathrop, aged 25 years, of R.D. 7, Mahoningtown, vocational agriculture instructor at Union High school, suffered first and second degree burns of the face and both hands, when he was attempting to burn some refuse from his department, near the school, late Wednesday afternoon.

He was taken to the Jameson Memorial hospital, where he received treatment.

GROW CHICKS OUTSIDE

Move the chicks outdoors early, urges F. H. Leuschner, extension poultry specialist of the Pennsylvania State college. This will relieve the hazard of crowding the house floor and help to harden-off the chicks. You will have to train the chicks to go in and out of the house.

Tobin forecasted Taft's re-election in his "timely remarks" column in the May issue of the union's journal, "The International Teamsters."

Without Painful Backache

As we get older, stress and strain, overexertion, excessive smoking or exposure to cold sometimes slows down kidney function. This may lead many folks to complain of nagging backache, loss of pep and energy, headaches and dizziness. Getting up nights or frequent passages may result from minor bladder irritations due to cold, dampness or dietary indiscretions.

If your discomforts are due to these causes, don't wait, try Doan's Pills, a mild diuretic. Used successfully by millions for over 50 years. While these symptoms may often otherwise occur, it's amazing how many times Doan's give happy relief—help the 15 miles of kidney tubes and filters flush out waste. Get Doan's Pills today!

Fong Action Threat

A CHINESE "civil war" of a sort is raging in San Francisco between dancer Lana Wong (above) and millionaire night club operator Fong Wan. She came from Shanghai, where she claims she earned $1,000 a week, in 1949. Wan hired her at $55 a week. She quit, complaining she was doing star work at chorus girl's pay. Wan advertised in Chinese newspapers that she is under contract to him, "tong action" was threatened, and her attorney claims Wan's action keeps her from $850-a-week offers in New York. (International)

Potato Growers Reject Proposal

HARRISBURG, May 25.—(INS)—The Pennsylvania Potato Growers association has rejected a federal proposal for marketing agreements under the potato price support program.

About ninety-two percent of the 1,500 member group voted against the federal plan Tuesday. The association was meeting for the second day of public hearings.

Under the proposal and 18-man committee of producers and dealers would be established to regulate inspection, supply and market prices of potatoes by size, grade and quality.

The committee would have the power to enforce regulations.

Co-operative Manager Steve Westrick, of Allentown, said the proposal would be an economic hardship on the farmer by forcing him to pay for enforcement.

In addition to placing the potato grower under the serviliness of the federal government, Westrick said "low income families would be unable to buy potatoes if the cheaper varieties were taken off the market."

LETTERS TO THE NEWS

(Letters intended for this column must be signed with name and address of writer.)

COMMENDS FIREMEN

City Editor,
New Castle News,
New Castle, Pa.

Dear Sir:

In this letter I want to publicly commend the Union Township Fire department for their fine work during the evening of Thursday May 4, when an explosion occurred at the Fazzone Fireworks plant.

The firemen responded quickly, offering their equipment and service, and as usual disregarding their own personal safety.

Despite the traffic congestion which resulted soon after the blasts at the plant—the firemen managed to get to the scene in a short time, and eliminated the possibility of any further damage.

The Union Township firemen are to be congratulated and I am taking this opportunity of doing so. Also in behalf of the Zambelli family, I am thanking them for their assistance.

Yours truly,
GEORGE R. ZAMBELLI,
Treasurer.

Seneca Women To Vote First Time

SALAMANCA, N. Y., May 25.—(INS)—Women will vote for the first time in the history of the Seneca Indian nation when tribesmen go to the polls in two reservations Saturday to elect officers.

Four women, led by Mrs. Genevieve R. Plummer, formerly employed by the U.S. Indian Service, are candidates for office.

The incumbent slate, headed by Dean Williams, maintains, however, that a referendum on women's suffrage on May 8 was not legal and have sought a federal injunction to halt the balloting.

Mrs. Plummer declared, however, that the referendum for a new charter carried by 400 votes and added:

"Our Indian government needs improvement definitely and we need the voice of Indian women in that government."

Women Followed By Suspicious Car

A North Hill husband reported to police that at 12:20 a. m. today his wife and another woman, who were in his wife's car, was followed by a suspicious car which contained a man.

He said his wife and the other woman had been at senior high school and went to a North Hill store. They found out a car was following their car as they drove toward Walmo via the Plank road. They drove slowly to give the car following them an opportunity to pass, but it didn't.

When they reached their home, the car which had been following them drove past their car, but in so doing the suspicious motorist extinguished the lights on his car.

The secretary summoned the girl who called her home and was told by her mother that the latter had not telephoned for her and did not want to go to a beauty shop.

Senators Fight Way To First Place Tie With Oil City

Mouton's Two Homers, Kiel's Single, Provide Wins 8-5, 5-4

Booster Day Fans See Two Great Extra-Inning Games

With their backs to the wall, the fightingest baseball club that New Castle has seen for many a day, The Senators, came from behind and blasted the Johnstown Johnnies in two extra-inning games last night at Flaherty Memorial Field, 8-5 and 5-4, to snap their losing streak of two games.

It was billed as a twin-bill "Boost The Senators" night, but The Senators did the boosting, as perhaps 1,000 fans looked on, and thrilled as Alphonse Mouton, the third sacker of The Senators, put on a game winning home-run spree in the seventh and ninth innings of the first game, his seventh inning round-tripper being a grand slam with three mates aboard, his second one, in the ninth over the right-field wall, found two mates on the nest. Mouton drove in seven of the eight New Castle runs.

In the pitchers' battle, 11-inning night-cap, Herman Kiel broke up the party in the last of the 11th by hoisting a slashing single to left field with two mates on the sacks, one having scored a few seconds earlier as reliefer Baumiller balked with the bases full, Vizzini trotting home.

Series Ends Tonight

Tonight the teams will end their current three-game series, the game getting under way at 8 o'clock.

Manager Chuck Cronin has selected Bernard Rossman as his starting hurler, with Charley Simpson slated for The Johnnies, or it may be Ed Kempka the former Vandergrift ace now with Johnstown.

It is doubtful if there will be two more thrilling battles at Flaherty Field this summer. The Senators are now tied for first place with Oil City, having won 12 and lost 5. Oil City tripped Butler last night 8-3.

George Becka got credit for the first win, his (4-1) record being among the league leaders, Churchill went all the way in the night-cap marathon to record his third win against no deefats.

Sparkling Plays

The fans last night saw one sparkling play after another by both sides, and voiced approval by their generous applause.

Johnstown has a good ball club being undeserving of their cellar position, but they just couldn't cope with that "will to win" the Senators had. Manager Roy Nichols and his mates are going to make it rough for lots of teams before the season ends, they have been a little slow in starting.

The Senators are breezing along around the top so far by sheer hustle, and being alert and hope to stay up there. The Senators are starting to hit the ball better and will be dangerous up at the dish. Mouton has suddenly developed into a home run hitter Al Dunterman used at first in the second game and as pinch-hitter and first sacker in the first game is hitting a hard ball. He had three for five in the night-cap and a single in two trips the first game.

String Is Broken

Bill Horne who had hit safely in 10 straight games up until last night, had trouble all night, going hitless in two trips the first game and having one for four in the second game. He is still batting around .400. Eikenberg is banging the old apple at a merry clip having three for seven trips last night to boost his average to the .309 mark.

Following the Johnstown series the Senators will go to Vandergrift for three games, and will not be back here until May 31 with Erie. The Senators will play three at Youngstown following the Vandergrift series away, being billed for a twin-bill Memorial Day at Youngstown.

The washing machine last night was awarded to Arthur DeJoseph of 1117 Croton avenue. The award was made at the start of the seventh inning of the second game.

Tough Luck Pitching

There has to be heartaches for every victory, the heartaches last night were suffered by two fine Johnstown pitchers Bill Lewis, in the first game, and the veteran Joe Smolko in the night-cap, although Smolko escaped the defeat Bill Baumiller being the victim of a 11th inning night-mare for Johnstown.

For the first six innings of the announced seven-inning first game of the twin bill young Lewis pitched his heart out, he had a no-hitter within his grasp, just three more men to get out, but he never got them out, the roof caved in, and before Gilmartin could be rushed in New Castle had five runs and five hit off of Lewis and although he escaped the defeat, he felt badly about it any how, but for six innings Mr. Lewis was the "boss." A walk, four singles and a homer by Mouton with the bases intoxicated did the trick after Eikenberg had batted home Famiglietti. Mouton's homer in the last of the ninth, was the blow, that did it, scoring Bilo and Eikenberg ahead of him.

Becka Great In Relief

Stan Zedalis started the first game and did a right nice job allowing six hits and five runs in the first 7 innings, then "Fireman" Becka came on, and didn't give up a hit or run, in the final two frames, a nice job of relief chucking.

Churchill gave up only seven hits in the 11 innings he oiled. It looked like curtains in the top of the 11th as pitcher Smolko hit a fast one over the wall in left field with Danks aboard, for a 4 to 2 lead, but again that old "Frank Merriwell" finish asserted itself and the "never say die" Senators came through with their second job of pulling the chestnuts out of the embers.

AL MOUTON HERO

Al Mouton, the Senators' sparkling young third baseman, whose two terrific home run smashes won the opening game of a twin-bill at Flaherty Memorial field last night. He drove in seven runs on his two round-trippers, his seventh inning blast over the center field fence with the bases full to tie the score and his right field wall smash in the ninth scoring two ahead of him. Mouton's first two homers of the almost month old season came at the right time. The Senators won 8-5 and 5-4 last night over Johnstown in photo-finishes.

He also hit a triple and double and scored twice.

To further his baseball nest Magusiak, with Smiley and Semansky, turned in a double play, but was guilty of one error, as was Gurgiolo, Collins and Smiley, the winning pitcher.

Marinelli, Badurik and Krueger pitched for DeCarbos. The former gave up three hits good for three runs in one frame. Badurik took over the flinging and did better, allowing three hits but only one run in four innings, while Krueger gave up one hit which was good for a run.

Bluedorne, Brest and Cwynar tried to stem the DeCarbo bats but failed.

Seven runs were made in the first frame, four by DeCarbos and three by the Artillerymen. DeCarbos got another quartet in the second and up to the last half of the sixth they led 13 to 4. Barnes Defeats Tommy Yarosz

DETROIT, May 25.—(INS)—Middleweight Ray Barnes, of Detroit, held a unanimous decision today over Tommy Yarosz, of Monaca, Pa., rated as one of the top contenders for the light-heavyweight crown.

Barnes forced the fight throughout last night to win an easy victory in the 10-round main event before 4,439 boxing fans at Detroit Olympia.

The heavier Yarosz, unable to cope with Barnes' milling style, was decisively defeated although he managed to stay on his feet the entire route.

Del Ennis May Be Out For Week

PHILADELPHIA, May 25.—(INS)—Dr. Thomas McTear, club physician, indicated today that Del Ennis, the Phillies' powerhouse outfielder, will be out of action for a week with a leg injury.

Ennis pulled a muscle in his left leg while batting during the eighth-inning rally in which the Phils scored six runs to beat Pittsburgh, 6-3, at Shibe Park last night.

Today's game will be the first that Del has missed since he sat out two in 1948. Manager Sawyer said Dick Whitman will probably spell Ennis in right field.

Phillies Stage Uprising In 8th, Defeat Pittsburgh Pirates 6 To 3

By HOWARD SIGMAND
(International News Service Sports Writer)

NEW YORK, May 25.—All good things must come to an end, even baseball winning streaks.

That being the case, Bob Rush, the long-legged rightnander who earns his pay pitching baseballs for the Chicago Cubs, can hopefully start on another the next time he gets the nod from Frankie Frisch.

The jesters will say that Bob got the bum's rush from the league-leading Brooklyn Dodgers last night. And they won't be far from the truth.

Rush sustained his first defeat of the year—after five straight victories—as Brooklyn and Dan Bankhead beat him, 6 to 1.

The victory kept the Brooks atop the National League by one full game. It came as the fighting Philadelphia Phillies staged a six-run rally in the eighth inning to subdue the Pittsburgh Pirates and Murray Dickson, 6 to 3.

Dick Sisler's three-run circuit clout—his sixth—highlighted the frame. Wally Westlake had given the Bucs a 3-0 advantage in the seventh with a three run blast, his sixth.

Lefty Max Lanier was able to go only one and two-thirds innings against the Giants yesterday before his shoulder stiffened and he was forced to leave the game. But the St. Louis Cardinals called on Rookie 'Junior' Boyer and the 22-year-old righty blanked the New Yorkers, 2 to 0.

Warren Spahn gave up only three hits and won his fifth of the year as the Boston Braves stopped the Cincinnati Reds and Ewell Blackwell, 4 to 1.

Lefty Mel Parnell won his fifth game, too, as he hurled the Boston Red Sox to a 7-to-5-win over the St. Louis Browns in a night game.

Washington's Senators dropped to fourth slot by losing to the Cleveland Indians, 5 to 4.

A five run eighth inning gave the Chicago White Sox a 10-to-7-win over the Philadelphia Athletics.

The New York-Detroit game was rained out.

Sylvan Heights Plays Third Round Wednesday Evening

Sylvan Heights golfers were hot as the weather last evening, and some sparkling golf was played, with Fred Palmer, turning in a one under par round of 35. Dom Dimeco and Harry Toscano had par rounds of 36.

American Cleaners and Shamrocks ended the evening's play a tie for first place, in the unofficial standing, with several of the other teams breathing hot on their necks.

The results of play last evening, were as follows: Universal-Rundle 8, Castle Club 4; Germani's 8, New Castle Store 4; Iafret-Esso 8, Eagles 4; Shenango Pottery 6, Morellas 6; United Engineering 6½, American Cleaners 5½; Johnson Bronze 6, Shamrocks 6.

Other low scores made last evening, were: James Gaione, Pinky Schneider and J. Gennock, 37's; E. Gunther, Fred Broad, Fred Lombardo, 38's; Clause, D. Mumford and Perry 39's.

In an effort to stir up some interest in boxing hereabouts, the New York State Athletic commission has approved a welterweight elimination tournament to establish a challenger for champion Ray Robinson.

Pirates To Enjoy Long Home Stay

Play Every Club Except 'Cincy' Reds

PITTSBURGH, May 25—Winding up their first Eastern trip in Philadelphia today, the Pirates will return home for their longest stay of the entire season at Forbes Field. Starting with a night game against the Chicago Cubs on Friday, May 26, the Bucs will play 18 straight championship games at their own park, followed by a charity exhibition meeting with the Cleveland Indians on Monday night, June 12, for the benefit of the Pittsburgh Community Fund.

During the long home stand, the Picaroons will face every other club in the National League except Cincinnati. Four contests are scheduled with the Cubs, two with the Cardinals, and three each with the Braves, Giants, Dodgers and Phils, in the order named. The program will include five night games, two Sunday double-headers, a Sunday single, and a big holiday double-header on the afternoon of Memorial Day, Tuesday, May 30.

TEN CITY LEAGUERS own membership in the Home Run club, having hit for four bases, 12 times. Magusiak, shortstop of the Lawrence Indies turned in two four-ply home runs, in addition to having hit a triple, since the season opened. DeFelice, outfielder for St. Margarets hit two home runs and Bing Markey outfielder also for the Saints hit one home run and three triples. Others who banged the "apple" out of the lot for four bases are: Parenti, right fielder, Croton; Jameson, second baseman, Lawrence Indies; Orlando, left fielder, Saints; Smith, left fielder, Field Artillery; Boak, catcher, Ecclesians and Romeo, hot corner man for the DeCarboes. Those accredited by scorers with triples are: Rozzi, St. Margarets; J. Razzano, St. Margarets; Barbato, St. Margarets; Rogan, Fees; Davies, Universals; Thomas, West Pittsburg; Paris, Croton and Nerti, West Pittsburg.

Eddie Longacre read the column in which it told how to kill snakes. "Every time I see a snake I have business elsewhere," says Eddie, adding: "I have no nerve when snakes are in the vicinity." . . . Joe Rick expects Remington, 2:08¼ trotter, to have a good season and also expects a lot of Mr. Nibs, a green pacer, who will start at Painesville in June. . . . My Son of the Rick stock farm, sired Bob and Van, the former having been named after Joe's grandson, Bobby Reiber. . . . Members of the Mahoning Sportsman's club will meet at 7:30 p. m. tonight at Hillsville high school, according to Vylus Latshaw, prexy. . . . Owen Fox is the city's landscaper, not the game protector, hence calls should not be made to Mr. Fox to have him remove skunks which may make their home beneath a porch, or trap rabbits which nip growing lettuce and other greens. Several nights ago, Mr. Fox was called upon to rid properties of a duck, opossum and one or two other animals.

Penn State's two indoor champions, Jim Gehrdes and Vic Frittz, loom as Coach Chick Werner's best bets for title recognition when the twenty-fourth annual IC-AA track and field championships are held in New York, Friday and Saturday. . . . The 'Veteran Boxer', Five-Star edition, published in Philadelphia, is off the press. It carries a story by Here & There of the Eddie Weygant-Danny Kramer fight in Youngstown. Kramer scored a T-Kayo over Jimmie Dime's featherweight, whom Here & There and Johnny Kilbane, handled for Dime. . . . Tom Gerrard, has only one leg but he played a backfield position for Cincinnati Purcell's high last fall, while Wanda Haines, 15, also has only one leg, but she participated in softball and gymnastics at Leavittsburg, Ohio, high school, according to Sportsvue. . . . It is estimated there are 2,000,000 crows in Pennsylvania and the Edenburg-Mt. Jackson section has its share. . . . Apparently there is need for more Frank Tamburini's to kill 'em off.

Konek To Enroll At Pitt In Fall

California Halfback Rated Great Star

CALIFORNIA, Pa., May 25.—(INS)—Johnny Konek, the nation's most sought-after high school football player, will enroll at the University of Pittsburgh in the fall.

Jim Underwood, football coach at California Community High school, said Wednesday Konek has selected Pitt over some 59 other colleges which had wooed the 18-year-old halfback.

Three Letter Star

Konek also is a terrific basketball and baseball performer. Coaches in 13 counties selected him the most valuable football player in Western Pennsylvania last season. The Wig Wam Wisemen of America placed him on their All-American High school first team.

He is six-feet, one-inch tall and weighs 185 pounds.

With Konek as the leading scorer, passer and punter, California High has been unbeaten the last two years, and won the Western Pennsylvania Interscholastic Athletic League Class A championship in 1949.

The White House swimming pool was built in 1933.

Two Close Games In Mercantile Loop

Two close games were played in the Mercantile league last night at Deshon field. The third game was just played.

Bell Telephone took the measure of the New Castle Store, 6-5. The Post Office stopped the Jewelry school by the same score.

In the third affair, Penn Power trounced the News, 14-5.

Big Ten Talks Over Rose Bowl

EVANSTON, Ill., May 25.—(INS)—The big ten's athletic directors and faculty representatives meet in Evanston today to decide whether they should continue their Rose Bowl pact with the Pacific Coast conference.

A University of Minnesota delegate is expected to suggest that the agreement be dropped after the 1951 New Year's Day game. There does not seem to be enough other opposition, however, to scrap the Rose Bowl tieup.

The original pact was adopted for five years and ends with the 1951 contest.

The Western conference officials are in Evanston in connection with the annual big ten track meet. The two-day track and field events begin tomorrow.

Atomic Furnaces Proposed To Ease Water Shortages

PHILADELPHIA, May 25. — (INS)—Relief of water shortages in the United States by means of "atomic furnaces" to evaporate sea water has been proposed to the American Water Works association.

The proposal was made before the association's 70th annual conference in a paper prepared by Norman R. Beers, editor of "Nucleonics' 'magazine and read by Dr. Abel Wolman, of Johns Hopkins university.

Beers suggested that several low-temperature nuclear reactors be constructed to make potable water from sea water in areas where shortages are acute.
